Freshman Orientation

Relaxing with friends.

Orientation is an opportunity to gather and get to know one another.

Freshman Orientation provided the usual fun-filled introduction to college life to the Loras College class of 1984.

Beginning on Sunday they were served brunch in the dining room. Later they attended a concelebrated mass in Christ the King Chapel.

Monday morning the students met with their advisors. The afternoon was spent exploring the campus and the city. There was also the opportunity to sign up for any of the many extra-curricular activities at Loras College. Later Monday was the traditional softball tournament and the annual Tri-College picnic, followed by a dance in the fieldhouse. Monday was the longest day of orientation.

Tuesday began with lectures on important things for college students to know, such as How to Study and Take Good Notes. The afternoon brought hungry students to a picnic on the lawn outside the fieldhouse. The softball tournament was completed and was followed by the traditional boat ride. Late Tuesday night the talent show finished a very busy Orientation schedule.

The Tri-College picnic is always lots of fun.

Homecoming 1980

Homecoming is as much a State of Mind as it is an Event. Each year certain classes make a particular effort to return to the school where they spent their undergraduate days and if only for a weekend to relive those days, see old friends and hopefully to make some new ones.

Since football returned to Loras in 1970 the Homecomings have been a joint affair with Clarke College and Homecoming 1980 was no exception to this rule.

Things got underway with a series of reunion parties on Friday night at the Julien Hotel. By Saturday morning everyone was ready for the Fun Run and the Parade through downtown Dubuque. The parade seems to get bigger every year with more bands, more floats, more participation by the various groups and some very active participation by a number of alums, both as a group and as individuals.

As people come up the hill from the parade, they have a chance to enjoy the tailgate party featuring Beer and Brats and the music of Joe Colaluca and the Loras Stage Band on Keane Field. The next stop on the tour is the football game in the Rock Bowl Stadium and as a matter of the record the Duhawks delighted the large homecoming crowd with a convincing 35-14 victory over Pillsbury College of Minnesota. The victory was particularly satisfying for first year Coach Bob Bieri as it was his first Homecoming victory as the Head Coach of the Duhawks.

Following the game various activities were held on both campuses until it was time for the traditional dinner-dance complete with live entertainment. The 1980 Homecoming participants were treated to the stories and imitations of 25-year graduate Bob Kaliban who returned for the event by popular request. Bob is well known for many of his national television commercials, particularly his memorable appearances as "Cookie Man" and the "TyDBol Man". Following the standing ovation Bob received for his performance, the crowd of 1600 danced and reminisced until the wee hours of the morning.

Sunday morning began with a beautiful and meaningful Liturgy in the Chapel of Christ the King and was followed by a brunch that was enjoyed by all.

Then it was time to spend a few more minutes or a few more hours with old friends, or in many cases sons and daughters who are now attending Loras, and then head for home.

Every year people seem to want to stay longer, do more and share more of themselves at Homecoming.

The chance to visit with someone who was your teacher or dorm director 25 or 30 years ago is a very special experience. The chance to meet the sons and daughters of your old roommates that now go to school at Loras is an interesting event for all concerned, particularly the sons and daughters who suddenly realize, "Gee, my folks may know more about this business of college life than I thought they did."

For everyone from the recent graduate, to the members of the 50-year class, Homecoming is a very special event.

As Robert Reynolds serves tea, Charley tries to see Amy, and Spettigue still chases "Donna Lucia."

The Loras Players' first production of the 1980-81 season, "Where's Charley?", was "a most amusing study of the social manners of Victorian England."

The cast included Barak Stribling as Charley, Laurie Weber as Donna Lucia, and Cathy Renk as Amy Spettigue. Other cast members include: Kay Noonan, Sherrie Mullen, Mike Forkenbrock, David George, Chris Gruca, Dave Aschert, Jerry Baggot, Matt Whalen, Kathy Janotta, Tori Goodman, Mary Beth Kilnoski, Nancy Schultz, Cathy Canning, Angie Beasley, Bill Dvorak, Mike Kennedy, Mark Baker, Mike Beck, and Joe White.

This charming musical/comedy was presented Thursday through Sunday November 6-9, 1980.

Colonel Holland visits Loras

Colonel Holland signs a memento.

United States Army Colonel, Leland Holland, class of '53.

U.S. Army Colonel Leland Holland, a member of the Loras class of 1953, was reunited with his wife and family on Sunday, January 25, 1981, with the return of the ex-hostages from Iran. The Colonel and other hostages had been held for 444 days since the take-over of the U. S. Embassy in Tehran on November 4, 1979.

The Colonel visited the rest of his family at his mother's home in Scales Mound, Illinois in February, following the White House welcome and other special tributes to the fifty-three in New York and Washington, D.C. While in Illinois, he visited Dubuque and the Loras campus.

Colonel Holland is a native of Shullsburg, Wisconsin and a graduate of the Scales Mound, Illinois high school. He attended Loras from 1949 through 1953, and earned his degree at the University of Nebraska in 1961. A son, Joseph attended Loras in 1973 and 1974.

Mrs. Holland is the former Mary Ann

Connolly of Dubuque. She and two of the children had been with the Colonel in Iran, but returned to the States prior to the seizure of the Embassy.

The Colonel had been hospitalized at Walter Reed Army Hospital for a few days following his return for treatment of bronchitis. Otherwise, despite rough treatment at the hands of his captors, he apparently is in good health. Along with the other returnees, Colonel Holland looks forward to rest, relaxation and the enjoyment of his freedom.

Among the highlights of his return were a special half-time telephone visit with the people of Scales Mound during a basketball game, and the formal welcome which the residents of the Scales Mound area gave to the Colonel. An all day celebration was highlighted by a parade in his honor. Special telegrams of welcome were sent to the Colonel's wife and to his mother by Dr. Pasquale Di Pasquale, Jr., Loras' president.

On Friday, February 20, Colonel Holland and his wife visited the Loras campus to participate in a Mass of Thanksgiving for the safe return of the ex-hostages. The concelebrated Mass in the Chapel of Christ the King was followed by a reception for the Colonel and Mrs. Holland in Tuohy Auditorium. President Di Pasquale expressed the gratitude of the entire Loras community for the Colonel's release, along with the others who were held hostage, and the safe return home.

Colonel Holland responded with brief comments and answered questions from those in attendance. He particularly pointed out how his Loras years helped him during the hostage days, and specifically mentioned his experiences in classes taught by the late Monsignor Sylvester Luby, Monsignor Timothy Gannon and Professor Paul Oberman.

The Colonel was presented with a Distinguished Alumnus Award.

Harry Chapin in Concert

Harry Chapin in concert in the Loras Fieldhouse

Harry Chapin

Harry Chapin entertained the Loras community on Monday, April 28. The concert was held in the fieldhouse before a full house. This was Chapin's 2053rd concert since the conception of his band ten years ago.

Chapin and his band traveled around the world averaging two-hundred performances a year. Half of their appearances were benefits in which funds in excess of three million dollars were raised to support the elimination of cancer, muscular dystrophy, multiple sclerosis, cystic fibrosis, and the President's Commission on World Hunger.

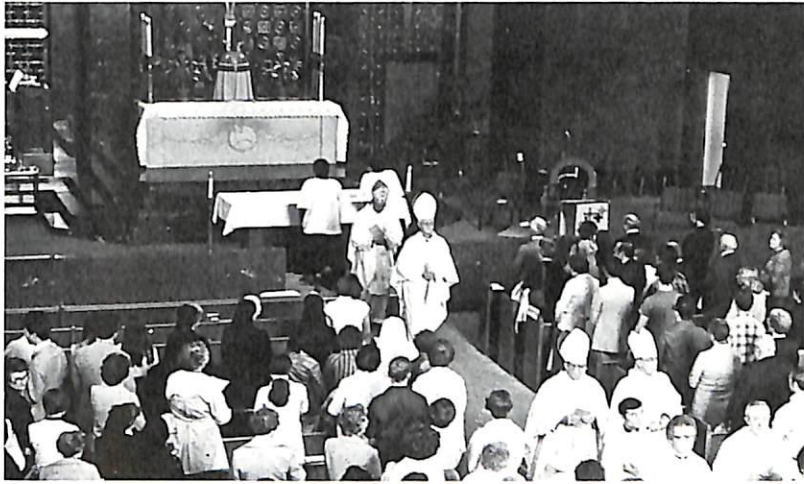

The members of the Chapin band included: Doug Walker, lead guitarist; John Wallace, guitarist; Howie Fields, percussion; Yvonne Cable, cellist; and Harry's brother Steve on keyboards.

Since his first commercial hit "Taxi" in 1972, Chapin has written hundreds of songs including his number one gold single in 1975, "Cat's in the Cradle". Chapin wrote the songs of the ABC hit show "Make A Wish" and released "Sequel" a continuation of the "Taxi" story which included his hit "Story of a Life".

Harry Chapin was a refreshing, dynamic entertainer. His songs set moods, they paint a picture of a situation. His music illustrated the human condition: doubt, self-reflection, a man who fails to emotionally cope with all the situations he faces in his life. And as Chapin himself says in his monologue song before exiting the stage: "When you sing from the heart, you hope something shows." He did show the world something very special, a part of ourselves. Harry Chapin was killed this summer in a tragic accident, but a part of him will remain with everyone he touched throughout his lifetime.

Papal Delegate Visits Loras

Archbishop Jean Jadot, Archbishop James Byrne, and the rest of the concelebrants are pictured leaving Chapel following the special Mass honoring the Papal Delegate.

The Papal Delegate praised the quality of the singing and the music presented in the Chapel.

Dr. Di Pasquale presented the gifts during the concelebrated Mass in the Chapel of Christ the King.

Archbishop Jadot shared ideas and answered questions during this panel discussion with members of the administration, faculty, and student body.

A capacity crowd gathered to celebrate Mass in Christ the King Chapel.

Archbishop Jean Jadot, the Apostolic Delegate to the United States spent three days visiting the Archdiocese of Dubuque in April of 1981.

During his visit at Loras Archbishop Jadot shared ideas and messages from John Paul II in both a formal and an informal way.

He visited with students and members of the Loras Community during an informal meeting in the Keane Hall lounge, at a reception on the lawn by the fieldhouse following a concelebrated Mass in Christ the King Chapel, and during a panel discussion in the fieldhouse.

Everyone who came in contact with Archbishop Jadot was impressed with the knowledge, sincerity, and gracious manner of this official representative of Pope John Paul II to the Catholics of the United States.

Dinny and the Witches starred Gerald Baggot as Dinny Jones. The three witches were: Ulga, played by Sue McGuinness; Zenobia, played by Cathy Renk; and Luella, played by Laurie Weber.

Dinny and the Witches

“a frolic on grave matters”

“Dinny and the Witches” is a romantic fantasy and was performed by the Loras Players at St. Joseph’s Auditorium on February 27 through March 1.

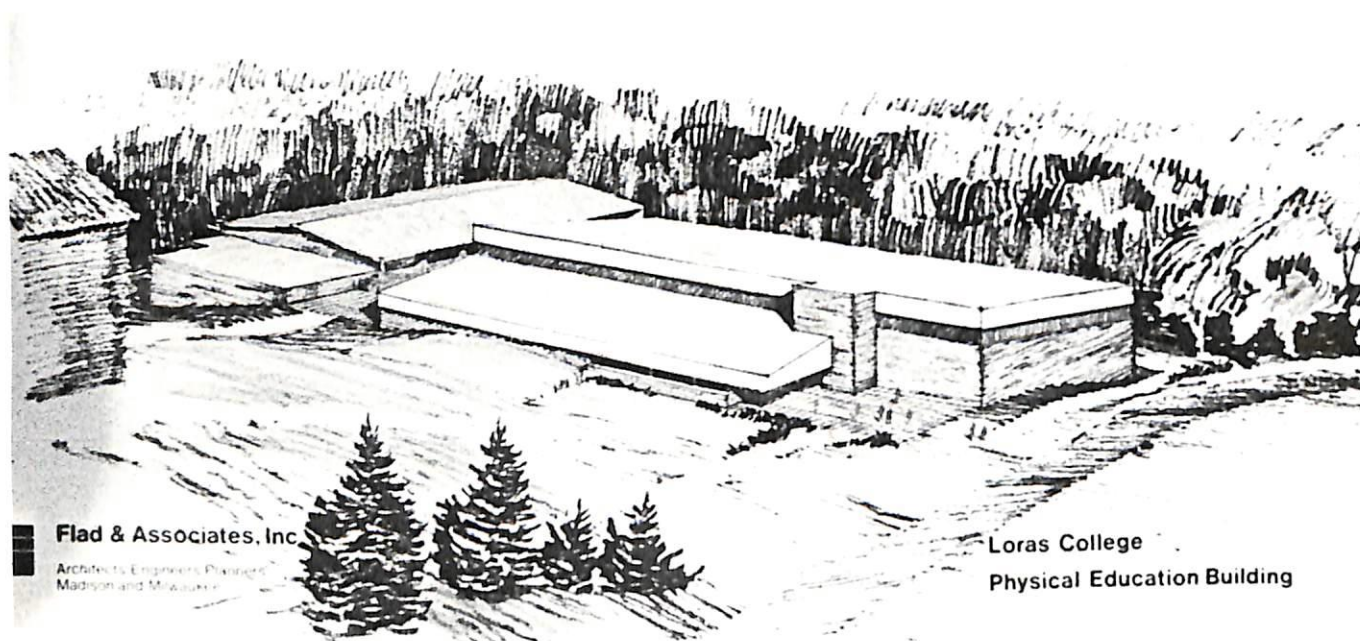

The play, which is by William Gibson, is subtitled “a frolic on grave matters” and is the story of Dinny Jones, a young musician, and his adventures upon meeting three witches in New York on his way home from work. The witches are waiting for Dinny because, according to their Book of Life, Dinny is to die that night and they plan to ambush Dinny in order to carry out his fate. Dinny, however, manages unintentionally to turn the tables on the witches by playing the trumpet. Enchanted by the music, the witches forget to watch the clock that governs the world’s tempo and it stops. As a result, Dinny gets the witches’ powers.

Dinny was played by Gerald Baggot, Angie Beasley played Amy, a pretty waitress in love with Dinny. Cathy Renk played Zenobia, the main witch. Luella, the scatter-brained nit-witch, was played by Laurie Weber and Ulga, the death witch, was played by Sue McGuinness.

Loras College
Physical Education Building

Site preparation work began on December 29, 1980, and official ground-breaking ceremonies were held on December 31 for the new Loras College physical education building at the tennis court site, south of San Jose Pool. Construction of the facility should be completed in the fall of the year.

At the ground-breaking ceremonies, Archbishop James J. Byrne, Chancellor of Loras, blessed the site prior to the turning of the first spadeful of earth by Chairman William J. Lux of the Board of Regents. Following Chairman Lux in lifting a clump of soil were Archbishop Byrne, Sister Helen Marie Feeney of the Board, President Pasquale Di Pasquale, Jr., Past President Monsignor Dorance V. Foley, Vice President C. T. O'Dowd, Dr. Joseph Schaefer of the faculty, Al Schramm, veteran of the P. E. department, Architect representative Thomas Nisbit, contractor Michael Conlon, and a representative of the student body.

Excavation work began immediately following the brief ceremony under the direction of the general contractor, Conlon Construction Company of Dubuque. Flad and Associates, Inc. of Madison, Wisconsin designed the 48,000 square foot structure, which will cost $2,750,000.

The new complex will be attached to the San Jose Pool, and will have three basketball courts which can be replaced by three tennis courts or six volleyball courts, or a combination of the three court uses. It will also have a one-tenth mile track with four running lanes, a wrestling room, two classrooms, offices for the coaches and staff, and locker and shower rooms. The west section will be two levels, with a balcony overlooking the playing surface.

President Di Pasquale pointed out that "The present gymnasium was built in 1924 to serve an enrollment of approximately 300 men. We now have more than 1,850 students, forty percent of whom are women, and extensive physical education and intercollegiate athletic programs for both men and women. The need for additional space is most urgent."

Discussion concerning the need for such a facility has been almost continuous since the post World War II era, when the Loras enrollment increased drastically.

Serious consideration has been given to the problem since 1973 with the demands of Title IX requiring non-discrimination on the basis of sex in all educational and athletic programs. The Long Range Planning Committee established by immediate past president Monsignor Francis P. Friedl designated the P. E. building as top priority on the list of Loras needs.

The present gymnasium on the upper campus will continue to share Loras home court designation with the Five Flags Center for varsity basketball games, and the new structure will be primarily for physical education classes, intramurals, wrestling and general recreation. The lower campus gymnasium will be phased out.

Loras is in an eight year capital campaign for $15,000,000, and the P.E. plant will be the first addition to the campus as part of the drive. Others will be library expansion and an academic facility, housing classrooms and offices. More than half of the campaign goal of "Loras: Century 21" will go into the Endowment, income from which is used to support educational progress at Loras.

Latin America Day

On March 24, 1981, Loras College held its Latin America Study Day. The message was clear: people are dying in Latin America. And not just from malnutrition and starvation, although these are serious problems. People in Latin America are being killed by gun and by torture, by people trained in the United States. The speakers at Latin America Day made us all aware that we are responsible, as Christians, for the people of Latin America.

On this special study day, and in three Lorian articles that preceded it, we were told that it is our duty as Christians to stand up and do something; then they gave us concrete ideas as to what to do.

The message of Latin America Day was not pretty, but we are better people for having been there.

Some of the speakers became more ... and more ...

"A Potpourri"

Barak Stribling as a criminal in the cell next to Christ's.

The Loras Player's Spring 1981 presentation was called "A Potpourri". It was a collection of three one-act plays, each unique in itself. Two of the plays were directed by Loras students as part of their senior performance projects. The third was directed by Don Stribling. This presentation concluded the careers of three very versatile and talented students, Chris Gruca, Cathy Renk, and Barak Stribling, who helped to make the Loras Players one of the top theatrical organizations currently active on a college campus.

The Wall

Jim Hayes defends the actions of Christ.

The Wall, a Lenten play which made it's Midwest debut here at Loras, was directed by Cathy Renk. It is the story of two thieves who are imprisoned next to Christ before the crucifixion. Jim Hayes and Barak Stribling were the only two actors in the play. Director Cathy Renk has performed in many plays in her career here at Loras and is a senior with a major in Speech Communications.

The criminals argue and reflect on the wall.

The Happy Journey

Thornton Wilder's The Happy Journey featured Nancy Schultz, Bob Lampe, Matt Whalen, Angie Beasley, and Kathy Janotta. The play is naturalistic; it concerns common people and common situations. It is the touching and sentimental drama of a family going by car to visit an older daughter who has just lost her child. The play was directed by Don Stribling.

Jerry Baggot, as the gas station attendant, attends to the family car.

Nancy Schultz comforts Kathy Janotta, who has just gone through a traumatic experience in her life.

The three girls have gained their aspirations and John Holmberg explains their situations.

Chris Gruca directed A Game of Chance, a one-act comic opera about a man who grants wishes to three women. The play combined the best qualities of drama and opera in a non-traditional way. The story takes place in America and the songs are in English. The play is exciting and powerful, designed to appeal to everyone. Chris is a Speech Communications major with an emphasis on music.

A Game of Chance

Dionysia

The winners of the Tug-of-War.

Dionysia 1981 was held from Tuesday, April 21 until Monday, April 27. It was a gala and enjoyable affair for the entire Loras College Community. The festivities began on Tuesday evening with the musical performance of Alexander and Brien in the Last Draw. Wednesday night was Casino night in the cafeteria. An admission price of one dollar provided participants with play money to be used for games of chance. There was an auction at the end of the evening.

Thursday evening saw some crazy acts staged in the Pub at the Gong Show.

Friday brought the Tri College Tug-of-War sponsored by Miller High Life. The winners were awarded trophies and T-shirts. After a Happy Hour in the Pub there was a formal dance at Lombardi's Ballroom in Bellevue.

On Saturday the softball tournament brought a lot of people out, as did the carnival rides on Coyne field. There was plenty of good food at the Pig Roast Saturday night.

Dionysia was brought to a close with a Harry Chapin concert which brought the week to a delightful end.

Christian Life Council goes to Appalachia

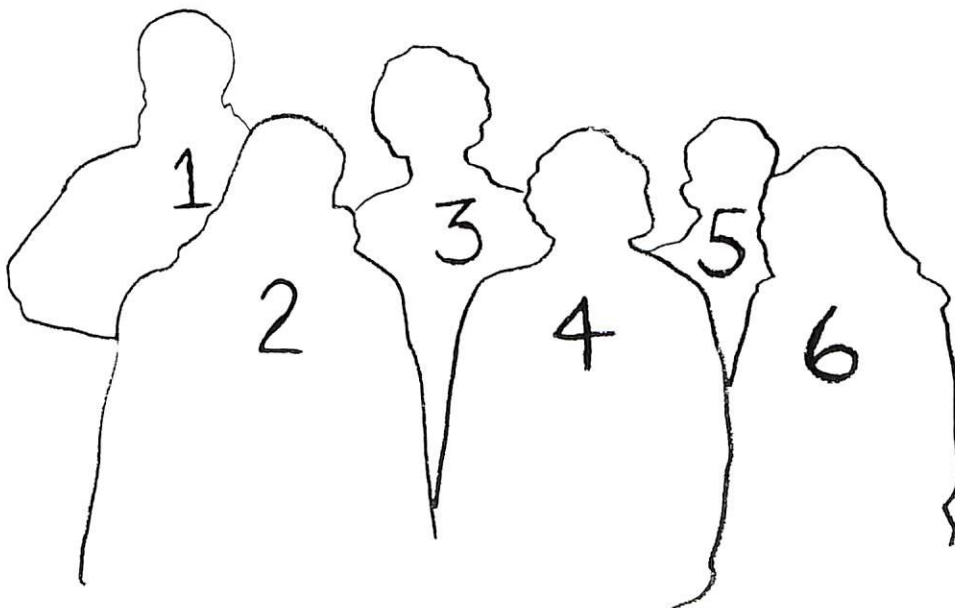

Seven members of the Christian Life Council spent their Thanksgiving Break in McKee, Kentucky helping the Jackson County volunteer staff at the St. Paul Church in McKee. The seven spent five days eating, praying, working and playing with the people of this poor community.

According to Tom Kane, the people were poor in material things but very rich in spirit. They have a strong sense of hope and perseverance. It appeared to Sr. Sue Foster that the lack of material goods added to their faith in the Lord as well as their joy, warmth, and love.

The Christian Life Council members rebuilt and reconditioned an outhouse roofed and insulated homes, and carried wood and coal for heating homes. Yet, the most memorable part of the trip was the smiles and laughter of the people.

Everyone on the trip learned a great deal but Bill Bridge summed it up best, "I've become aware that there are people here who need help, you don't have to go all the way to McKee."

APO

Sneak Preview

The Band EASTLAND performs at the APO Sneak Preview.

The Lambda Kappa Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega presented their 27th Annual Sneak Preview on February 13, 14, and 15. The theme for the show was "Love is in the Air," and the show featured a sprightly chorus, as well as solo numbers by Kay Noonan, Angie Thompson, and Joan Kedley. Also featured was the band EASTLAND, and various comedy routines and skits. The program was well organized and provided something to suit everyone's taste.

The show was produced by members of the fraternity, but the cast was selected from the Dubuque Colleges. Gamma Sigma Sigma and Circle K of Clarke were also instrumental in getting the show produced.

Profits from the show went to help send twenty students to aid the poor in Appalachia, to provide scholarships to Loras juniors who best exemplify the fraternity's cardinal principles, to finance the founding of the Gamma Sigma Sigma sorority at Loras. Money was also donated to the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Career Day

The first Loras College Career Day was presented on April 8 from 1-4 pm, and provided some 350 Loras College students with a reassuring look toward future job opportunities and career goals.

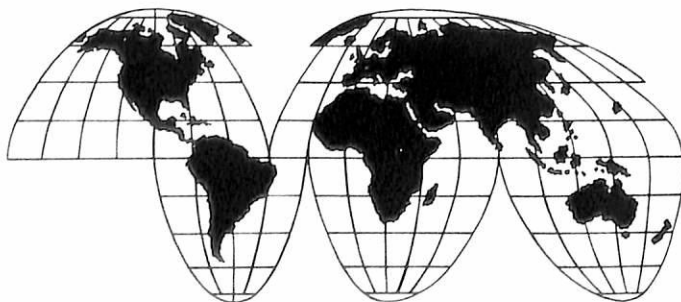

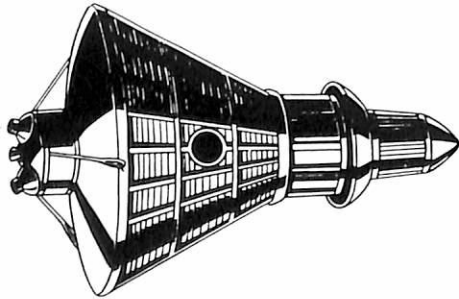

About sixty-five alumni of Loras were present in Tuohy Auditorium for the browsing session, and also in Keane and Hennesy halls for special presentations and question and answer sessions. The visiting alumni offered advice and facts regarding opportunities in each one's respective field. They also discussed the value of a Liberal Arts education. The information covered a wide range of career areas, including humanities, the sciences, philosophy and religion, and business and accounting.

The Reagan Seminars

On five consecutive Tuesdays beginning on March 31 Loras College offered a series of lectures collectively called The Reagan Seminars. Mr. Carl Wagner conducted the lectures relating how the Reagan Administration handles important national issues and how it relates to the press, political institutions, and so on. Wagner graduated from Loras in 1967 and received his Masters degree in Political Science/Public Policy Studies from Iowa State in 1969. Since that time he has held various positions in the political world, and currently is special assistant to Senator Edward Kennedy.

Each seminar began with a lecture by Wagner on some aspect of the Reagan Administration. The floor was then opened up to a panel discussion. The panel responded to Wagner's talk and exchanged ideas among themselves before accepting questions from the floor. The seminars were held in St. Joseph's Auditorium and began at 7:30 p.m.

The first seminar was entitled "Reagan at the Inauguration" and discussed

Reagan's election mandate, the condition of the country when Reagan took office, and Reagan's campaign promises and party platform. Members of the panel for this seminar included: John Ellis, NBC Election Unit; Lance Tarrance, Pollster for Republican candidates; Glen Roberts, the Iowa Poll; and Jim Gelades, Dubuque Telegraph Herald.

The second of the seminars was called "Reagan and the Economy." Panel members were: Al Kahn, President Carter's inflation fighter; Mary Garst, Iowa business woman; and Chuck Gifford, Iowa U.A.W. president. The seminar discussed Reagan's budget cutting proposals, inflation-fighting tactics, and tax policies.

The third seminar, "Reagan and the Press," discussed Mr. Reagan's relationship with the press during his first few months in office. Panelists included: Ed Walsh, White House correspondent for the Washington Post; Jim Gannon, Des Moines Register; Ed Campbell, Chairman of the Democratic Party in Iowa; and Ben Webster, Iowa; and Ben Webster, Chairman of the Republican Party in Iowa.

The fourth seminar talked about "Reagan and Foreign Policy". Panelists were: Sandy Berger, former Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Policy and Planning; John Crystal, Iowa industrialist and author; Ken Quinn, member of the Foreign Service Office on leave to Governor Ray's staff.

The fifth and final seminar was entitled, "Reagan and the Institutions" and discussed how responsible the president should be in representing the interests of political institutions and special interest groups. Panelists for this seminar were: Tom Miller, Attorney General, State of Iowa; Jane Teaford, Iowa League of Women Voters; and Tom Tauke, U.S. Congressman, Second district of Iowa.

The Reagan seminars provided serious students with material relevant to current events and helped to better prepare them to be good, responsible citizens.

Graduation

The Class of 1981 began their final wrap-up on a sunny Friday afternoon, April 17, with a picnic for seniors and faculty behind the San Jose Pool. The food was delicious and there was fun for all in the games played after lunch.

The following Tuesday saw many seniors honored for their achievements at Loras at the Senior Awards Banquet. The banquet was held at the Dubuque Inn and was paid for by the faculty.

Next on the agenda for the busy seniors was a cocktail party and dinner at Happy's Place sponsored by President Pasquale Di Pasquale, Jr.

On their last Friday night in the Pub the seniors celebrated with a Senior Pub Party. The Pub Party was sponsored by the Class Council.

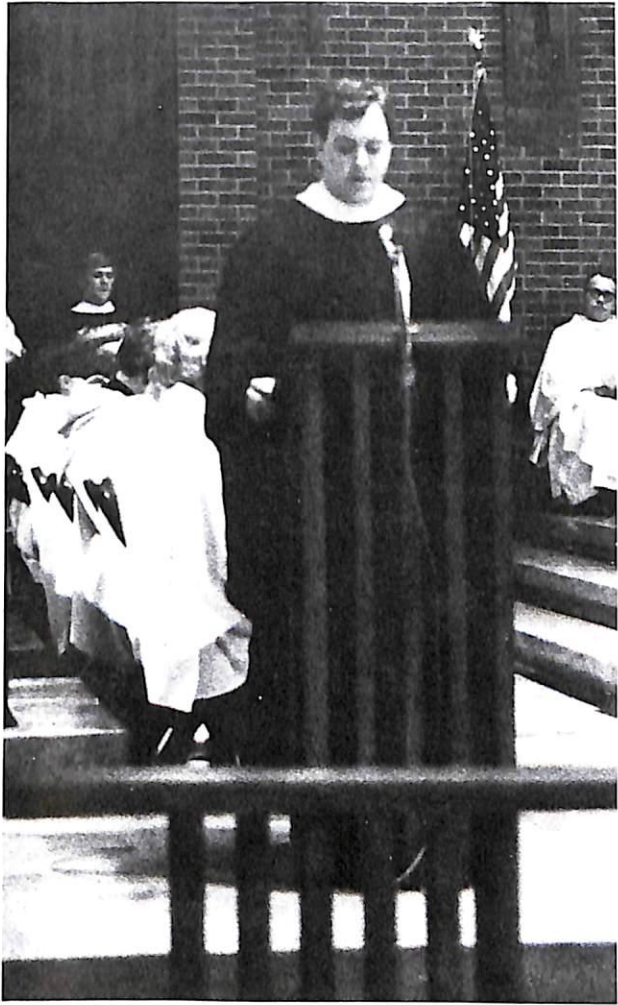

Saturday evening, May 9, the seniors gathered outside Keane hall for the procession to the Nativity Church for the Baccalaureate Mass. Rev. Warren Nye delivered the Baccalaureate Homily to the Senior Class of 1981. After the mass a Graduation Party was held at the Julien Motor Inn for the seniors and their parents so they could dance the night away.

Due to less than perfect weather, the Graduation ceremony on Sunday, May 10, was held at the Five Flags Center. This was the first Graduation Loras has held in the Center and the extra space was appreciated by everyone.

The graduation speaker was Mr. Louis Fautch, a prominent Dubuquer. After the ceremony there was a short reception on the lawn outside the fieldhouse.

Duhawk defense swarms ballcarrier.

Coach Bob Bierie and the Duhawks posted a record of 5-5 during the 1980 football season. The team was two plays away from a record of 7-3 during a rebuilding year which saw the Duhawks post a 14-3 victory over rival St. Ambrose in the second game of the season and then win four of the last five games on the schedule enroute to their record of 5-5.

The Duhawks opened the year by losing, 41-21, to the nationally ranked University of Dubuque Spartans before returning home to post a victory over the Ambrose Bees. This was the first home game as head coach for Bob Bierie in the Rock Bowl Stadium.

Although the native Dubuquer was an all around athlete at Loras Academy, Bierie did not have an opportunity to play football because he attended Loras when the school did not have a team. After a successful coaching career at the high school and college level, Bierie has returned to his alma mater to rebuild the football program.

Coach Bierie considered the victory over St. Ambrose an important step forward for his program and felt that it proved to his young team that if they were willing to work hard and pay the price they could be part of a winning program at Loras College. Following the game with the Ambrose Bees, the Duhawks travelled to Luther College and lost, 32-0, to a highly regarded Norseman team. They lost a homegame, 34-7, to Milton before going to St. Norbert and losing to the Green Knights 28-25 on the final play of the game.

The Duhawks returned home to a crowded Rock Bowl Stadium and posted a 35-14 homecoming victory over Pillsbury College. The following week saw more Duhawk fans in the stands than the home team as they posted a 25-7 victory, spoiling Illinois Benedictine's homecoming. They lost, 41-34, to Westmar College in another game that was ultimately decided by one big play.

The team closed the season on a winning note by stopping Iowa Wesleyan's Tigers 28-22 and then going all out for a 21-14 victory over the highly regarded Lakeland Muskies in the annual Parent's Day game.

There were many new faces connected with the 1980 football team. Ralph Micheli joined the Loras Physical Education staff and was quickly named the Defensive Coordinator. Bill Shes-ton and Steve Flynn returned from the 1979 staff to work with the offensive and defensive lines while Mike Jacobs, a former Wartburg gridder coached the linebackers. Former Duhawks Greg Capell, Brian Henderson, Mike Corrigan and Charlie Banks returned to help their former team.

Coach Bob Bierie ran his team from a Slot-I on offense and used a basic 5-2 defense. Paul Rice, a four year starter for the Duhawks, was the only returning veteran on the offensive unit and the senior from Aurora, Illinois provided lots of leadership from his tackle position. Dan Ciesielski started at the other tackle while Scott Panozzo and Mark Eisbach played guard on either side of center Bob Bracco.

Jeff Cohen started at tight end while Steve Burke was the wide receiver. Freshman quarterback, John Betterman, was joined by Dan Edmeier, Kevin Cooke, and Stan Stallsmith in the offensive backfield.

The defensive unit featured only two new faces as freshman Pete Gehant started at defensive end and freshman Terry Breitbach started at free safety. Other than this, Coach Ralph Micheli had a chance to work with veterans Mike Sabo, John Majerus, Mike McDermott, and Steve Huss in the defensive line, linebackers Dick Cody, and John Winkle, and defensive backs Mike Purviance, Dave Duffy, and Kevin Funke.

During the season, numerous Duhawk players won NAIA District 15 Player of the week honors on either offense or defense. Running back Dan Edmeier, who led the Duhawks in rushing with well over 1000 yards, was an offensive selection, as was wide receiver Steve Burke whose pass-catching ability won several games for the Duhawks. Linebacker Dick Cody and middle guard Mike McDermott were honored as Defensive Players of the Week. One of the highlights came at the end of the season when seniors Paul Rice and Dick Cody, and juniors Steve Burke and Mike McDermott were named to the All-District 15 team.

Coach Bierie felt that his senior captains provided a lot of leadership for the team and helped to make his job as a first year coach a lot easier because of their positive attitude and dedication to the program. The 1980 senior co-captains were Paul Rice, Dick Cody, Kevin Funke, Dave Duffy, and Tim Lloyd.

The season concluded on an optimistic note when two-time Notre Dame All-American and Heisman Trophy winner, Johnny Lattner, personally congratulated the members of the squad and coaching staff at the Fall Sports Banquet. Lattner indicated that he has always been very interested in Loras College and that he was honored to be the featured speaker at the Banquet.

The Duhawks would like to thank former coach, Vince Coyle, the Sports Information Director who, with F.M. radio station KLXL, provided radio coverage of the Duhawk games for home listeners. Coyle was joined by Wahlert High School football coaches Jim Killoran and Dick Weitz.

The 1980 Duhawk Volleyball Team was a combination of the old and the new. There were new faces, new ideas and a new coach, but there were also lots of old faces, old ideas and old traditions.

Winning big games, playing before large, enthusiastic home crowds, getting good support on the road and making five trips to the Regional Tournament are some of the traditions that have been developed since 1975.

The Duhawks concluded the 1975 season by finishing second in the State Tournament and advancing to the Regional Tournament. They decided to improve on this record the following year and they did so by winning the State Championship and again going on to regionals. In 1977 and 1978 the Duhawks duplicated their 1976 efforts and thus won three consecutive state championships, a record never before or since equalled.

In 1979 they finished second in the state tournament but again advanced to the Regional tournament.

The 1980 team set some very high goals. Coach Janelle Nelson and her team were out to prove that you could take six returning letterwinners and six outstanding freshmen and continue the traditions that have been established for Loras volleyball teams.

The 1980 Duhawks were led by co-captains Connie Bandy and Elaine Curran, senior Denise Webber, junior Cathy Gales and sophomores Coleen Ryan and Julie Hoffmann. Webber, who is one of the premier floor leaders in intercollegiate volleyball in the state of Iowa, was one of the co-captains last year. She reported for early workouts on crutches due to a summer softball injury, but soon regained her place in the starting line-up.

Bandy and Webber played on two state championship teams while Curran and Gales were their teammates on the 1978 state championship team. Hoffmann and Ryan were also veterans of both state and regional tournament competition.

Coach Janelle Nelson, who played high school volleyball in Minnesota and college volleyball in Wisconsin, felt that her returning veterans were some of the finest volleyball players in Mid-America.

The six first year Duhawks all brought impressive credentials to the Loras campus. Sue Helling and Lois Noel were veterans of state tournament competition on the high school level. During her days at Wahlert High School in Dubuque Sue Helling played on a state championship team for the Golden Eagles while Lois Noel was an equally impressive performer on a Hempstead Mustang team that participated in some of the finest high school volleyball games ever seen in the state of Iowa.

Pat Norberg was a veteran of tournament play in the state of Illinois while Annette Brown developed her skills while playing in the highly competitive Catholic League in Chicago.

Lynn Burke enjoyed a lot of success during her years at St. Joseph's Academy in Green Bay while Itza Ruiz attended school and played high school volleyball in Panama.

John Houser was an added bonus for the squad as the hard working service veteran returned to college to complete his senior year and went on to serve both as the team trainer and assistant coach.

Sophomore manager Denise Baggio, who starts at second base during the softball season shared the managerial duties with Beth Kiefer, a freshman basketball player from Green Bay, Wisconsin.

Tammy Edens, regarded as the most thorough statistician in the history of the Loras volleyball program, returned to take care of this highly important part of the program.

Because they are not in a conference, the Duhawks work extra hard during the year to get ready for the state and regional tournaments.

This means they play teams like Marycrest, the University of Wisconsin/Platteville, William Penn, Clarke College, the University of Northern Iowa, St. Ambrose, Coe, the University of Dubuque, Augustana, Highland Community College, Kishwaukee Community College, St. Mary's and Upper Iowa in dual meet competition in addition to travelling to tournaments at the University of Northern Iowa, Marycrest College and Lewis University.

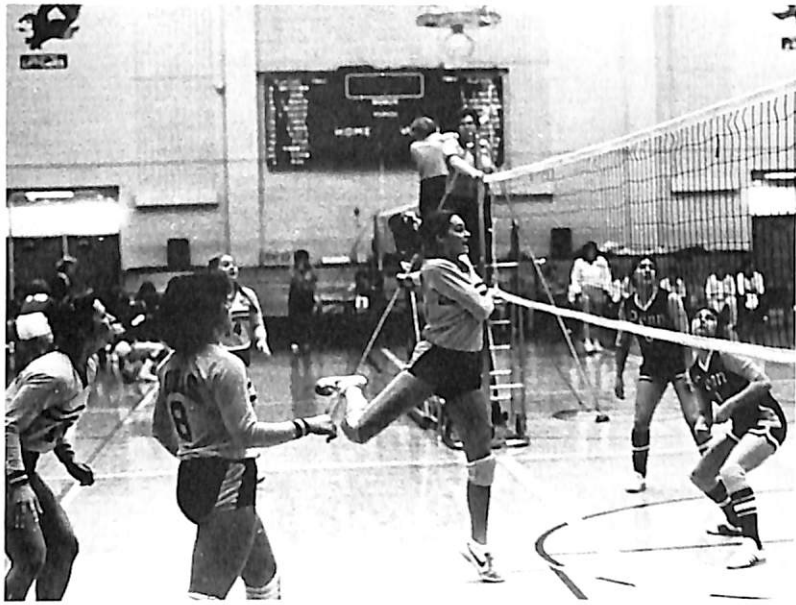

During the season Elaine Curran, Cathy Gales and Connie Bandy consistently earned places on the all-tournament teams and served notice that the Duhawk traditions of excellence were both alive and well.

Denise Webber was a steady floor leader while Julie Hoffmann and Colleen Ryan used their experience to help mold the team into a hard working unit.

The Duhawks concluded their regular season with a record of 23-10-2 and then moved into state tournament play at Wahlert High School in Dubuque.

In state tournament action they defeated William Penn in first round play before falling to Marycrest and then coming back to beat Grand View. A loss to the University of Northern Iowa in the semi-final round eliminated the Duhawks from the state tournament.

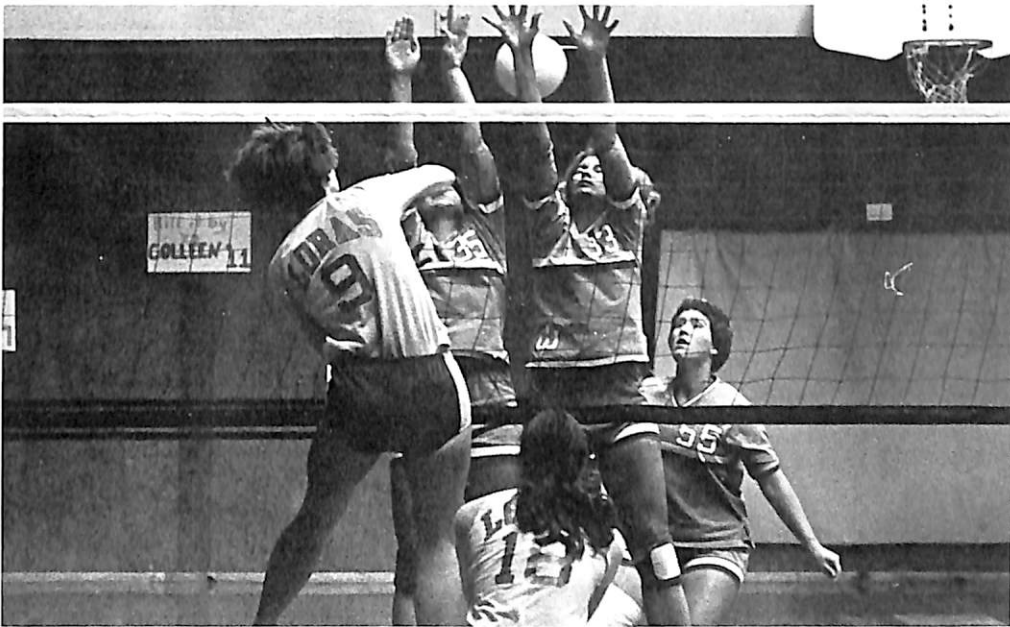

The entire squad saw action in the state tournament as Lois Noel, Sue Helling, Annette Brown, Lynn Burke, Pat Norberg and Itza Ruiz served notice that they are ready to be part of a Duhawk State Championship team in 1981.

Cathy Gales spikes another point.

Duhawk runners lead the pack

The final stretch of a long run

The 1980 Duhawk cross country team was coached by Dave Smith, a former standout cross country and track performer at Loras College. During the 1979 season Smith gained valuable coaching experiences while working with Coach Al Wittine and a team that posted a record of 7-0 in dual meets, a third place finish in the Iowa Intercollegiate meet and a second place finish in the NAIA District 15 championships.

The 1980 version of the Duhawks featured both youth and experience. Veterans like Tom Boeh, Tim Durham, Larry Hellman, Bill Solawetz, Larry Hood, Tom Manning and Chris Hoft were joined by Mark Rubino, Joe Manning, Dan Zillig, Steve Mally, Tim Russell, Mike Whitehead, Phil Kauder, Tom McCafferty, and Bob Weltzen.

Coach Smith decided to enter the team in a number of large invitational meets in preparation for the District Meet and the NAIA National Championships in Salina, Kansas.

The team made a strong showing in all of the Invitational meets and placed second in the NAIA District 15 Meet at Sioux Center. Tom Boeh finished third in the District Meet while Tim Durham was the fourth place finisher.

As the result of their performances in the District Meet, the Duhawks co-captains advanced to the NAIA National Meet on November 15th in Salina, Kansas.

Both Boeh and Durham made impressive showings at the National Meet but they missed the All-American recognition that is given to the top 25 runners from across the nation.

They both gained a great deal of experience in the National Cross Country Meet and used it to help qualify for both the NAIA National Indoor Championships in Kansas City and the NAIA National Outdoor Championships in Houston, Texas.

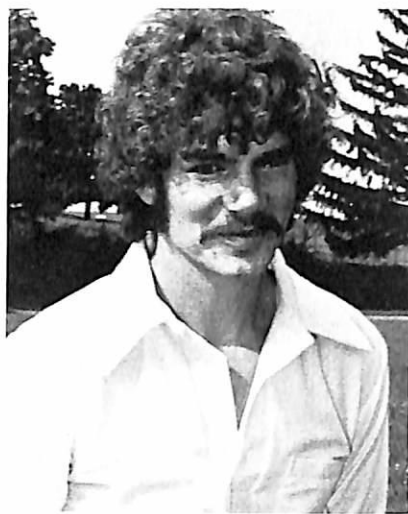

The sport of cross country has a proud heritage at Loras as it was only a few years ago that the Duhawks finished ninth as a team in the NAIA National Cross Country Meet and then followed this with back-to-back fifth place finishes in the National Meet.

The 1980 squad felt that they gained the experience they will need to serve as the nucleus of a strong Duhawk effort in the National Meet in the very near future.

Cross Women's Country

Dave Smith
Head Coach

The Women's Cross Country program at Loras is one of the newer intercollegiate sports at Iowa's oldest college.

Cross Country has always been a strong program at Loras and now that women make up 40 per cent of the student body it was felt that there should be a program just for the women.

In the past they had been able to compete with the men's teams in cross country and track, but in 1979 the first women's cross country team was organized.

The first team was coached by Dave Smith and consisted of Linda Schleuter, Vicki Ross, Wendy Sauter, Sally O'Neill, Michelle Mueller and Liz Gabbard. They competed in a number of invitational meets and made steady improvement during the season.

When the 1980 season started injuries and people not returning to Loras proved to be a problem. The Duhawks were unable to get five athletes ready for any one meet and so had to compete as individuals instead of as a team. Co-captains Linda Schleuter and Vicki Ross were joined by freshman Siobhan O'Connor from Evergreen Park, Illinois and competed in Invitational meets at Luther College, Cornell College, the University of Wisconsin/La Crosse in races that ranged from two to three miles. The Duhawks posted a number of impressive performances and served notice that they were among the stronger individual cross country contestants in the state of Iowa.

With these athletes as a nucleus for the program the Duhawk Athletic Department plans to go all out to establish a strong women's cross country program in the future.

Mullen coaches the Duhawk golfers.

For many years golf was a spring sport at Loras College. Because of the uncertainty of the weather, many schools, like Loras, went to a fall, and spring schedule. Coach Bob Mullen had a huge squad as the new format and the chance to take a spring trip to New Orleans appealed to a lot of golfers.

The team consisted of Dave Nacos, Keith Kuechler, Bill Halloran, Kevin Pellegrine, Dan Murray, Damon Shilhanek, Mike Merrigan, Rick DeSanti, C. J. May, Peter Moothart, Dave Anglin, Jim Fitzgerald, Ben O'Connor, Mark Kurland, Dave Schlader, Al Whalen, Tom Wilkins, and Dwight Hanson.

During the fall season the Duhawks competed in the Chicagoland Collegiate Golf conference. They started the season in impressive fashion by defeating Rockford 15-9, Illinois Benedictine 14½-9½ and Aurora 24-0 in a quadrangle meet at the Fox Valley Country Club. Peter Moothart was the Duhawk medalist with an 81.

From there the Duhawks went on to win a playoff for first place in the West Division of the Chicagoland Collegiate Golf League. Illinois Benedictine upset the Duhawks 12½-11½ but Loras came back to beat Aurora 22½-11½ and tied Rockford College 12-12. Loras trailed Rockford 12-8, until the last man, Rick DeSanti, came on with a 79 to earn all four points for the Duhawks and give them a tie. DeSanti was runner-up to medalist Chris Amato of Illinois Benedictine who carded a 78. The tie match left Loras and Rockford with identical league records of 8-3-1 and the play off position was decided by strokes. Since DeSanti outscored his Rockford opponent by 12 strokes, Loras was declared the winner by three strokes.

Damon Shilhanek, Dave Anglin, Dave Nacos, Dwight Hanson, and Peter Moothart were the other Duhawks in the Chicagoland Collegiate Golf League competition.

During the spring season Bill Halloran fired a two under par (72) to pace the Duhawks to a 389-392 victory over St. Ambrose in the season opener for both teams.

The Duhawks enjoyed a successful spring season but finished fourth in the NAIA District 15 meet in Davenport and did not qualify for the National meet in Houston, Texas.

The NAIA Coaches have now voted to shift the National Meet from the spring to the fall as they feel the golfers are better prepared for a National Meet after playing all summer.

Coach Bob Bierie is a motivator of young people. He believes that if athletes are mentally ready for a contest, they will be hard to beat. He carried this philosophy from the football field to the basketball court in the space of one afternoon and by the time the day was over the Loras Women's Basketball Team knew that they were going to be playing for a coach who believed in them and one who wanted them to believe in themselves.

Bierie was well aware of the fact that it is hard for any first year coach to mold a group of veterans and newcomers into a team in a few short weeks, but with the pre-season help of Denise King and Kevin Fuller he had the Duhawks ready to play by the time the season opened.

The record shows that there were a lot of new faces on the floor and on the bench the night the Duhawks travelled to Iowa Wesleyan for the first game of the 1980-81 season. It also shows that the Duhawks posted a 51-50 victory and that following losses to the University of Northern Iowa and the University of Dubuque, they came back to defeat Highland Community College 60-54 and evened their season record at 2-2.

Having not seen the team play during the two years Barb Anderson coached the Duhawks, Bierie had to work hard to determine his starting line up. The usual starters included Teresa McClain, Debbie Pogwizd, Marianne Keating, Cathy Kass, and Suzanne Richter. Because he had a great number of athletes with equal ability, Coach Bierie was able to get a lot of players into each game and to make numerous changes in his starting line up. Beth Kiefer and Bev Witt were frequent starters, while Denise Baggio and Theresa Marxen often played on an equal time basis with the starters.

When the volleyball season ended Cathy Gales joined the team and either started or played steadily as a reserve so the Duhawks could take advantage of her height and rebounding ability.

As she had been the year before, Teresa McClain was the leading scorer and rebounder for the Duhawks and was also the team captain. She demonstrated her scoring ability in the home game with Iowa Wesleyan when she scored 32 points to tie the Fieldhouse record set by Lori Murray during the 1979-80 season.

Freshman guard Debbie Pogwizd set a new school scoring record when she netted 41 points in the game with Milton College during a tournament at the University of Wisconsin/Parkside.

Teresa McClain, Debbie Pogwizd, Beth Kiefer, Bev Witt, and Cathy Gales turned out to be the scoring leaders while McClain, Kiefer, and Gales were joined by Cathy Kass and Suzanne Richter for rebounding honors. Marianne Keating, Denise Baggio, and Theresa Marxen were playmakers who made things happen on offense.

The Duhawks closed the season by winning three of their last four games as they posted a 7-12 record in regular season play before moving on to lose to William Penn.

During the final 10 days of the season the Duhawks avenged an earlier loss to Clarke College with a 67-55 victory, topped Highland Community College 63-62, lost to the University of Wisconsin/Eau Claire and then beat Coe College 57-53 before a large crowd in the Loras Fieldhouse. As there are no seniors on the squad, Duhawk players, fans, and coaches eagerly await the 1981-82 season and a chance to see a veteran team in action.

The 1980-81 edition of the Duhawk basketball team proved to be a rebuilding year. After the successful 79-80 season, the Duhawks, under head coach Bob Mullen and assistant coaches Doug Smith and Jeff Carter, posted a record of 18-19 during a season that saw them in action against seven NCAA Division I opponents, as well as the strong traditional rivals.

This was the first time in four years that the Duhawks failed to win at least 20 games during the season. Coach Mullen has always felt that you get better when you play the best teams that you can schedule, and he plans to continue this practice.

During the year the Duhawks provided the fans with basketball excitement both in the Fieldhouse and at the Five Flags Civic Center. Thanks to the addition of some outstanding first year players, the Duhawks had a great deal of depth and they were often able to get 10 or 12 players into a game.

Captain Kurt Denner, the 6' 9" senior center from Fort Madison, Iowa was the team leader. In addition to scoring 1709 points and becoming one of only five players to have scored over 1700 points as a Duhawk cager, Denner was one of 11 players named to represent the United States in the Jones Cup competition in Yugoslavia.

Before the year ended, Mullen and the Duhawks played against three of the top teams in the Bahamas, treated the fans to a pair of victories over St. Ambrose, a hard fought win over the University of Dubuque and a first round NAIA District 15 playoff victory over Graceland College. During the season Grandview had posted a 65-60 victory in a game played in Des Moines while the Duhawks were later on the long end of an 82-76 count over Grandview at Five Flags.

Following their 65-61 victory over Graceland in first round NAIA playoff action the Duhawks travelled to Des Moines to meet the Vikings at the Drake Fieldhouse. Grandview built up an early lead and then held off a furious Duhawk rally to post an 86-75 victory and end the 1980-81 Loras Basketball season.

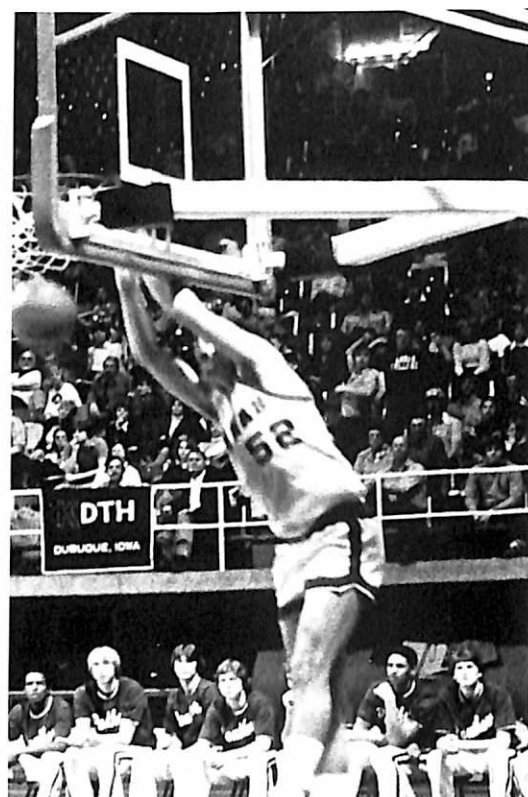

When the season ended, Denner was named the most valuable player on the Duhawk squad while Dick Mertens was the Most Improved. John Curtis became the newest member of the 1000 point club and the 6' 6" junior center from Janesville has now taken aim at the 1798 points that Jack Frasco scored in 95 games between 1955-60.

The Duhawk offense was explosive. There are only 21 players in the history of Loras College to have scored one thousand points or more and two of them were on the 1980-81 team. The Duhawks had plenty of height up front. In addition to Denner and Curtis, Van Bakke, a 6'9" freshman, Jeff Hermesen, a 6'7" freshman, Tom Kunnert, a 6'6" freshman, Doug Goodman, a 6'5" junior, Bill Hogan and Jim Hayes, two 6'5" sophomores, and Andy Kotlarz, a 6'4" freshman, were always ready for action. Junior Dick Mertens, who is listed at 6'3" and plays at 6'7", was a handy man to have around the basket. Guards Troy Cicero, Dwayne Spraglin, George Lynch, Paul Kacynski, Roy Humphrey and Tom Connolly, could always be counted on to make things happen either on offense or defense.

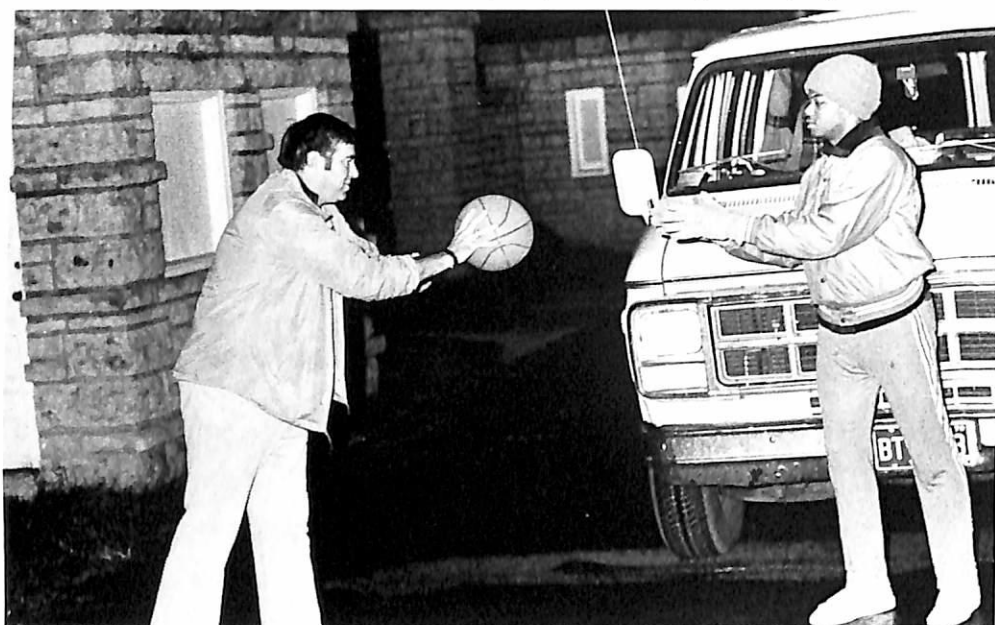

The Duhawks also played a number of Junior Varsity games and this gave young players like John Brietbach, John O'Brien, Steve Kramer, Mark Nemmers, Jim Griffin, Rick Kullander, John Enright, Mike Phillips, and John Lattner a chance to gain the experience they will need to be an important part of the program next year.

In 1966 Pat Flanagan became the Loras Wrestling Coach. Since that time Flanagan-coached teams have posted a record of 128-44-4 and set 52 of the 53 school records. This year the Duhawk mentor plans to retire from coaching and take over the intramural program that Al Schramm started in 1939 and directed until his retirement in May of 1981.

During his final year as the Loras wrestling coach, Flanagan led his team to a record of 15-2 in dual meets, a successful tournament season and watched with pride as Ken Beyer won All-American honors for the second year in a row.

During the season Beyer posted a record of 24-2 and in the process won the championship of the 167-pound class in the Carthage Tournament, the Chicago State Tournament and the Black Hawk Tournament. He was also a six-time winner of the Wrestler of the Week Award at Loras.

Beyer shared Most Valuable Wrestler honors with Tom Kettman, the 142-pound class winner in the Carthage and Black Hawk tournaments as well as in the Open Tournament at Waldorf. Kettman was second in his weight class at the Chicago State Tournament and was a five-time winner of the Hustler of the Week honors as well as a five-time winner of the Wrestler of the Week honors.

Beyer and Kettman were the senior co-captains of the 1980-81 wrestling squad.

Senior Chuck Kresse posted a record of 22-3 and was honored as the Most Improved Upperclassman as well as for having the most takedowns and major decisions. Kresse won the championship of the 134-pound class in the Chicago State Tournament and the 142-pound title in the Open Tournament at Cornell.

Chuck proved his versatility as a Duhawk wrestler by winning the 126-pound title in the 24-team Wheaton Tournament. He placed second in the 134-pound class in the Carthage Tournament. Kresse was an eight-time winner of the Wrestler of the Week honors as well as a two-time winner of the Wrestler of the Week Award.

John Piech earned the Special Senior Award for his four years of competition. He captured the championship of the 126-pound class in the Black Hawk Tournament enroute to a 14-5 season. John earned both Wrestler of the Week and Hustler of the Week honors, thanks to the votes of the captains and coaches, as well as the votes of the entire squad.

Keith Colsch was honored as the Most Improved Freshman with a record of 25-7. He was the champion of the 118-pound class in the Black Hawk Tournament and was named the Most Valuable Wrestler in this very challenging six-team tournament. Colsch also won Wrestler and Hustler of the Week awards. Freshman Gene Murphy earned a trophy for the fastest pin when he stopped his 126-pound opponent from Maranatha College in 32 seconds.

In tournament competition the Duhawks captured the championship of the Black Hawk Tournament, finished second in the eight-team Carthage Tournament, and sixth in the 24-team Wheaton Tournament.

Five Loras wrestlers were among the 335 contestants from 76 colleges during the first day of action in the NAIA National Wrestling Championships in Edmond, Oklahoma.

In the 167-pound class Ken Beyer pinned two opponents during preliminary and first round action enroute to a seventh place finish in his weight class and All-American honors.

Keith Colsch won by a pin in the first round while Bob Vogt posted a hard-fought 7-6 decision. Colsch went on to the quarter finals while Vogt was beaten during an overtime period in second-round wrestleback action.

Chuck Kresse and Tom Kettman both lost first-round decisions and were unable to advance in the National Tournament.

Coach Flanagan pointed with pride to the depth the Duhawks enjoyed during the season.

He noted that the second place finishes by John Kranz in the 134-pound class and Joe Leahy in the 158-pound class had been vitally important to the victory in the Black Hawk Tournament and that John Winkle's second-place finish in the 177-pound class in the Chicago State Tournament assured the Duhawks of a second place finish in the meet.

Bob Vogt posted a record of 18-7 while wrestling at weights ranging from 158 to 177. The versatile junior won five awards as Hustler of the Week and three as Wrestler of the Week.

Senior Doug Drexler fought back from injuries and surgery to post a record of 6-2 in the upper weight classes while sophomore John Kranz was 12-3 in the 134-pound class. The Duhawks were basically a young team as with the exception of junior heavyweight Brad Deery, the balance of the squad was made up of a group of highly motivated and very talented freshmen and sophomores.

Athletes such as Matt Biondic, Tim Gadus, Joe Leahy, John Luksetich, Dean Ricciardi, Dennis Slater, Joe Stein, Forrest Trausch, and Al Whalen are expected to be an important part of the Loras wrestling program for years to come.

Coach Jan Leiser and the Duhawk swim team set a number of meet and school records during the 1980-81 swimming season. Co-captains Ed Landgrebe and Bill Schalz set new records in their specialties and Mark Allen set a new school standard when he scored 202.75 points in the three meter competition against the University of Wisconsin/Oshkosh. This broke the old school record of 194.25 set by Grant Van Den Heuvel in 1975. Landgrebe set a new school standard in the 200 meter butterfly while Schalz set a new record in the 200 yard individual medley. The co-captains combined forces with Joe Ross and Steve Davidson to give the Duhawks a 400 yard freestyle relay team that was hard to beat.

Davidson was a consistent winner in the 100 and 200 yard freestyle events while Mark Allen was often a double winner in the one meter and three meter diving competition. Bob Vechiola added strength and depth to the sprint and relay events and Ellen McKay was a consistent point winner in the 200 yard breast stroke. Damien Sepanik, Megan Trausch, Laura Trogan, and Tim Duffy were versatile enough to swim on the 400 yard medley relay team and also to compete in a number of individual events. Sepanik and Duffy specialized in the short sprints while Trogan and Trausch were very strong in the 200 yard backstroke and the 200 yard freestyle.

Joe Ross of the Duhawks had the thrill of a lifetime when he won the 50 yard freestyle in the dual meet with Knox College in Galesberg, Illinois. Not only was it his first road trip with the team, it was the first time he had ever competed in a college swimming meet.

During the season Schalz and Landgrebe provided a great deal of leadership and encouragement for a young team that lacked depth. The entire team got a lesson in spirit when they competed in the annual alumni swim meet. This November event saw Harold Petsch, the man who along with Father William Most founded the Loras swim program, return to the San Jose pool with a group of outstanding alumni swimmers. Many of the swimmers competing for the alums set school and meet records during their undergraduate days. Many members of the varsity turned in personal bests in the meet with the alumni when they realized they were swimming against people who wrote the original Loras record book.

Such familiar names as Ann and Randy Landgrebe returned to swim on the 400 yard medley relay team. During their undergraduate years Ann and Randy helped set the school record in the 400 yard medley relay and in the process were featured in Sports Illustrated magazine. There have never been that many brothers and sisters on record setting college relay teams and they were a part of the Faces in the Crowd section of the December 1975 issue of Sports Illustrated.

In the opinion of Coach Jan Leiser and Assistant Coach Father William Most, who works with the divers, the Duhawks were an exciting team to watch during the 1980-81 season. They feel that with more depth and experience they will be a more exciting team to watch and hard to beat.

Duhawk hurler set to pitch

Cory Soukup heads to first with another hit.

Coach Smith directs base traffic.

The 1980 baseball season opened in Florida in March and closed in Missouri in May. During that time the Duhawks set numerous school records, won the NAIA District 15 championship and advanced to the NAIA Area IV Tournament for the first time since 1971.

Coach Doug Smith earned Coach of the Year honors in the state of Iowa and the Duhawks set a new standard of excellence when they won 29 games, breaking the old record of 28 set last year.

The Duhawks had good depth at all positions and quite a few veterans throughout the lineup. The Duhawks learned a lot of things and developed a lot of skills in the process of posting a 29-17 record and playing against the champions of Missouri, Wisconsin, and Minnesota for the right to go to the College World Series in Lubbock, Texas.

Veteran pitchers Steve Burke, Tom Neuhaus, Bill Molleck and Rick Ross joined with sophomores Duane Coleman, John Drilling, and Scott Davis, and freshmen Scott Glab and Shawn Ries to form the Duhawk mound staff. Cory Soukup and Kurt Long joined with freshman Tony Soer to give the Duhawks a trio of outstanding catchers. Before the year was over Long moved to the outfield so that he could play every game. He helped the team with a .377 batting average and led in hits with 55. Soukup hit .370 for the year while Soer hit .300 and played with the poise of a veteran.

First basemen Dale Huinker, Bruce Daniels, and Bill Molleck were always ready for action. Senior Neil Rima, a .369 hitter, started at shortstop as a junior but moved back to his natural position of second base when Jeff Potts transferred to Loras. Potts earned All-State honors playing that position for the Hempstead Mustangs during his high school days and played shortstop for Lewis University on a team that went to the NAIA National Tournament last year.

Sophomore Brian Smith, and Kevin Clendenen (an all-stater from Senior High School) were the second basemen. Before the season ended Clendenen was starting in right field so that the Duhawks could take advantage of his speed and ability in the outfield. Sophomore Joe Hughes and freshman Tim Welsh gave the Duhawks solid depth at shortstop.

Third base was a busy place. The Duhawks had two-year starter Kevin Fuller, Junior transfer Terry Cain, freshman Paul Kral, an all-catholic league selection from Chicago, and sophomore Jim Brew ready to play. As the season progressed Fuller played against left handed pitchers and Cain got the call against the right handers.

Jim Doty, the offensive leader of the Duhawks, was a great centerfielder. Doty led the team at the plate with a .413 batting average. He was also the leader in runs batted in with 50, home runs with 8, and stolen bases with 10.

Kurt Long and Kevin Clendenen generally rounded out the starting outfield but Coach Smith was always able to call on two year veteran, Stan Nielsen, sophomores Brian Long and Gerry Brennan and freshman Dave Hayes.

During the season Craig Rima, a four year letterman catcher, and pitcher Steve Potts, who transferred to Loras and did not become eligible until April, were an important part of the program in their roles as Assistant Coaches. When he became eligible, Potts immediately became a starting pitcher and was credited with two victories in the NAIA District baseball tournament.

Steve Burke hurled the Duhawks to a 12-4 victory over Briar Cliff in the opening game of the tournament. Potts stopped Graceland 8-0 in the second game and then came on in relief of starter Rick Ross with two outs in the ninth inning of the championship game with Grandview. Potts stopped the Viking rally and went on to pitch the rest of the way until the Duhawks finally won the game in the 15th inning on walks to Jeff Potts, Dale Huinker, Tony Soer and Cory Soukup. The walk to Soukup forced in the winning run as the Duhawks posted a 9-8 victory and headed for the Area IV Tournament in St. Joseph, Missouri.

Burke, Potts, and Ross all drew starting assignments in the area tournament.

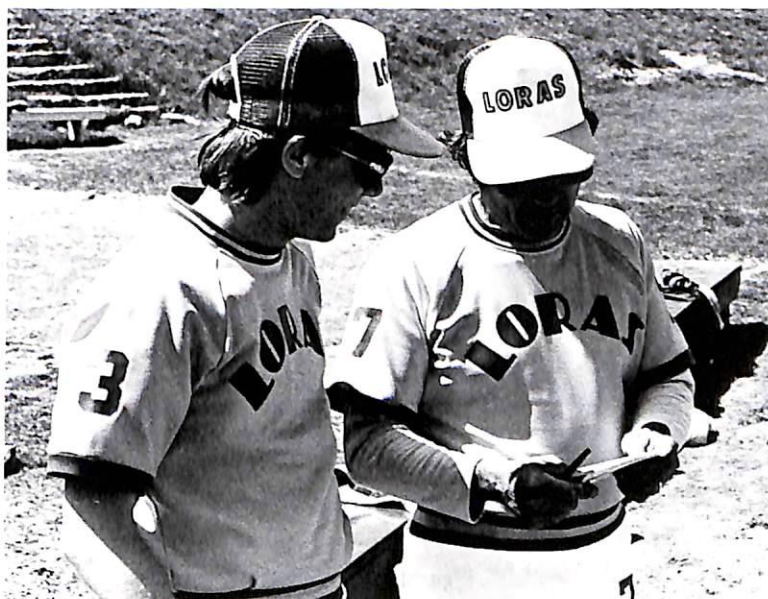

When the season ended the Duhawks could recall with pride their 5-4 victory over the University of Wisconsin and their close 3-0 and 4-3 defeats by the University of Iowa. This was the third year in a row for the Duhawks to win 20 or more games as last year they were 28-13-1 and in the process split a doubleheader with the Iowa Hawkeyes. The year before Loras was 22-9-1 and ranked number one in Eastern Iowa.

Loras also placed five players on the 16-man All District 15 team.

Junior pitcher Steve Burke had a record of 8-2 and a 2.07 earned run average while senior Rick Ross was 4-2 and always available for relief duty.

Senior catcher Cory Soukup, who hit .361 hitter for the Duhawks, and Jim Doty who hit .413 while covering centerfield were all First Team selections for the Duhawks.

Among the 24 players earning Honorable Mention honors were seniors Neil Rima and Kurt Long, Junior Kevin Fuller and freshman Tony Soer.

The 1981 Duhawk softball team was an interesting mixture of newcomers and proven veterans.

Colleen Ryan and Connie Bandy, two of the finest pitchers in the history of the Duhawk softball program, were joined by freshmen hurlers Justy Grimm and Cheryl Peck.

Julie Hoffmann returned to handle the catching chores and was joined by Lynn Burke a freshman from Green Bay, Wisconsin with impressive credentials, both as a receiver and a hitter.

Joyce Boniface a proven starter was back at first base, while Beth Kiefer, a versatile freshman with the ability to play a lot of positions was also available for duty at first base. An off season injury prevented Joyce Geary from playing softball so instead of helping the team on the field she served as a statistician and scorekeeper. When the team returned from the spring trip to Florida, Denise Baggio broke her arm, so instead of starting at second base, she joined Joyce Geary as a statistician and scorekeeper.

Senior Karen Prescia and Justy Grimm were both available for action at second base and they helped shortstop Jayne Soppe turn in a number of double plays during the season. Soppe returned from an injury that kept her out of action last year. Brenda Wilcke, the lone senior lost via graduation, had been the shortstop a year ago so a healthy Jayne Soppe was just what the Duhawks needed at that position.

Mary Ann Keating was an experienced and proven third baseman as was Connie Bandy who helped spark the Duhawks to the state tournament as a freshman.

Returning outfield veterans included Cathy Kass, Teresa McClain, Georgia Capell and Sue Capell. They were joined by Jill Doty, Pat Norberg, and Ann Huinker.

Jane Osterhaus had done some catching during the 1980 season and had proven that she could also play a variety of positions but Surgery put her on the sidelines and so she joined the coaching staff as an assistant to head coach Janelle Nelson.

proved against the University of Dubuque. Doty hit the first home run of the season in the opening game with the Spartans while Kass had a timely double that helped spark a six run offensive outburst.

Against Marycrest Ann Huinker had her first home run of the season while Connie Bandy, Jayne Soppe and Cathy Kass all registered triples.

The players and coaches were unanimous in agreeing that their trip to Florida was vitally important to the program. The fact that they were able to play eight games against teams like Purdue and the U. S. Naval Academy and post a pair of hard fought victories, gave them the confidence they needed to start the season in a very positive way when they returned to Iowa.

They posted a series of impressive victories over the University of Dubuque, Clarke College, Marycrest, Upper Iowa and Highland Community College and went on to show Grandview, William Penn and Northwestern that if you want to win state tournament honors in the State of Iowa you have to get past the Loras Duhawks.

Colleen Ryan became the most successful pitcher in the history of the Loras softball program when she posted a record of 5-1. The hard throwing sophomore from East Dubuque, Illinois also helped her own cause on a number of occasions with timely hits in crucial situations.

The Duhawks had a lot of long ball hitters as Jill Doty and Cathy Kass

The Duhawks demonstrated their offensive punch in an awesome way against the Clarke Crusaders scoring 17 runs in the first game and 18 in the second game of a double header played at Senior High School. Everyone on the team had one or more hits as the Duhawks established a number of offensive records during their 35 run outburst.

Marianne Keating and Colleen Ryan hit timely doubles against Upper Iowa as Ryan won her own game with a hit that drove in three runs in the bottom of the last inning in the second game of the doubleheader with the Peacocks.

The games with Highland Community College were total team efforts as the Duhawks scored 21 runs on 20 hits in the first game and 14 runs on 14 hits in the second game.

The Duhawks advanced to the state tournament but did not go on to the Regional Tournament action. They feel that during the 1980 season they gained the experience they will need to be a factor in state and regional tournament competition in the future.

The Loras College Women's Tennis Team compiled a record of 8-1 and sent a three-player delegation to the state tournament at Luther College in Decorah.

During the course of the season the team of Linda Hoppmann, Mary Kinskey, Deanna Hoff, Janice Hanten, Jill Palm, Mary Vandebrook, Nancy Haack, Laura Schlueter, Joyce Geary, Kathy Schreiber, Florence Mueller, and Mary Watson compiled a record of 8-1 in dual meets and proved to be one of the finest women's teams in the Mid-west.

Because of a technicality, the Duhawks were unable to send a full team to the AIAW state tournament so Coach Carolyn Crews sent Linda Hoppmann, Jill Palm, and Laura Schleuter to the state meet. Linda Hoppmann and Jill Palm played singles, while Laura Schleuter teamed with Hoppmann to form the Loras doubles team for the tournament. In singles play Linda Hoppmann dropped her first round match but then came back with three impressive victories to win the championship of the consolation flight. Jill Palm advanced to the second round of the championship flight. The doubles team of Hoppmann and Schleuter drew a bye in the first round of the championship flight and then lost their next match. They then advanced to the first round of the consolation flight.

During the regular season Kathy Schreiber played number one singles, Linda Hoppmann was the number two singles player, and Florence Mueller, an exchange student from France, was the number three singles player. Jill Palm usually played number four, while either Laura Schleuter or Joyce Geary was number five.

Schreiber and Geary usually formed the number one doubles team, and Hoppmann and Schleuter often were the number two doubles team.

In an effort to use as many players as possible, Coach Crews varied the number five and six singles positions and the number three doubles teams throughout the season. This strategy paid off with a record of 8-1 during the season and impressive victories over Coe, Upper Iowa, Marycrest, Cornell, and Wartburg, along with a loss to the always powerful U.N.I. Panthers.

Coach Ron Mescall and the 1981 Tennis Team started the season with a 9-0 victory over the University of Dubuque at an indoor meet at the Dubuque Racquet Club and never looked back.

During the season Mark Streit, Steve Davison, John Talbot, Bob Plahm, Jim Breitbach, Keith Gudenkauf, Dave Toth, Gary Dura and Kevin Costello helped Coach Mescall return the Loras tennis program to the place of prominence it enjoyed when he was the coach during the early 1970's.

Sophomore John Talbot was the number one singles player while Dave Toth played number two singles. Captain Jim Breitbach was at number three singles while Steve Davison was the only freshman to make the singles line up. Veterans Mark Streit and Keith Gudenkauf rounded out the roster of singles players.

John Talbot and Dave Toth formed one of the doubles teams while Captain Jim Breitbach usually teamed up with either Steve Davison or Keith Gudenkauf. Gary Dura, Kevin Costello and Bob Plahm were the selections when it came time to pick the third doubles team.

A former Big Ten Conference Champion during his undergraduate days at Michigan State, Coach Mescall worked hard to develop a winning attitude as well as to help the team master the mechanical phases of the game.

They fashioned a record of 6-0, but were rained out of matches at Coe, Cornell, and Rockford.

When the Duhawks were in action they took a pair of victories from the University of Dubuque, stopped the Upper Iowa Peacocks twice and had single victories over Beloit and the University of Wisconsin/Platteville.

The 1981 tennis team posted one of the most impressive records in the history of the sport at Loras College.

Coach Greg Capell and the track team enjoyed a lot of success during the 1981 season. Every member of the team established personal bests during the season while four members of the squad qualified for the NAIA National Track and Field Championships in Houston, Texas.

During the season Greg Smith was a consistent winner in both the long jump and the triple jump as he set numerous meet and stadium records in the process of qualifying for the Drake Relays and the National Meet. Tom Boeh, Tim Durham and Jim Watkins started strong and finished their careers at the National Meet in Houston. Along the way they dominated the sprints, middle distance and distance events at a number of Invitational meets, and joined with Tom Manning to place eighth as the Duhawk Distance Medley Team in the Drake Relays.

Jim Watkins, Mike Gibbs, John Moore and Greg Smith formed the 4 X 20 Meter Relay Team at Drake, while Gibbs, Moore, and Watkins were joined by Dennis Schlader on the Sprint Medley Team and the three then teamed with Tim Durham to form the 4 X 400 Relay Team at Drake.

Greg Smith in the Long Jump was the only solo competitor for the Duhawks at the Drake Relays as they finished with their best overall performance since 1975. Smith had one of his best efforts of the year when he won the long jump in the Iowa State Invitational with a leap of over 23 feet and beat James Moi of Iowa State who is regarded as one of the best long jumpers in the nation.

The two mile Relay Team of Dennis Schlader, Tom Boeh, Tom Manning and Tim Durham consistently finished among the leaders in both Invitational and Open Meets. Mike McDermott was a frequent place winner in the Shot Put while Phil Kauder, Mark Rubino and Tim Russell earned numerous points in the distance events.

At the end of the season, Greg Smith was named the Most Valuable Field Athlete and Tom Boeh was named the Most Valuable Track Athlete. Tom Manning was the Comeback Athlete of the Year, while Phil Kauder was the Most Valuable Freshman and Dennis Schlader was the Most Improved Athlete. John Moore and Jim Watkins received Senior Awards while Tim Durham won the Mark Weber Award.

Earlier in his career Tom Boeh earned the Mark Weber Award while Coach Capell also earned the Mark Weber Award during his undergraduate days at Loras. As a sign of their appreciation for his efforts as a first year coach, the Duhawks presented Greg Capell with a special recognition award during the annual track banquet following the season.

Mark Weber Award

Tim Durham was the winner of the 1981 Mark Weber Award. This is the most prestigious athletic award given on the Loras campus and it is presented each year by Mr. and Mrs. William Weber of Anamosa, Iowa in memory of their son Mark.

During his undergraduate days at Loras, Mark Weber was a student leader in every sense of the word. A popular student-athlete, he was respected and liked by both his teachers, his classmates and his teammates.

As the captain of the Duhawk track team he went on to establish school records in the Shot Put and the Discus that are still the standards of excellence in these events.

Shortly after his graduation from Loras he was killed in a tragic auto accident. In his memory his parents have established the Mark Weber Award which each year is presented to a member of the Loras Track Team.

To even be considered for this award is an honor in itself, but to receive it an athlete must demonstrate the qualities of academic and athletic leadership that characterized the life of Mark Weber. Since the award was first presented the winners read like a Who's Who in the history of Loras Track and Field. They include Larry

Kruse, Jack Lothamer, Fred Pilcher, Jim McEneaney, Mark Carlson, John Hackett, Don Merrick, Mike Cassady, Mark Pilcher, Tom Bowers, Jonas Narthey, Chuck Korte, Rick Kohrs, Dave Smith, Greg Capell, Tom Boeh and now Tim Durham.

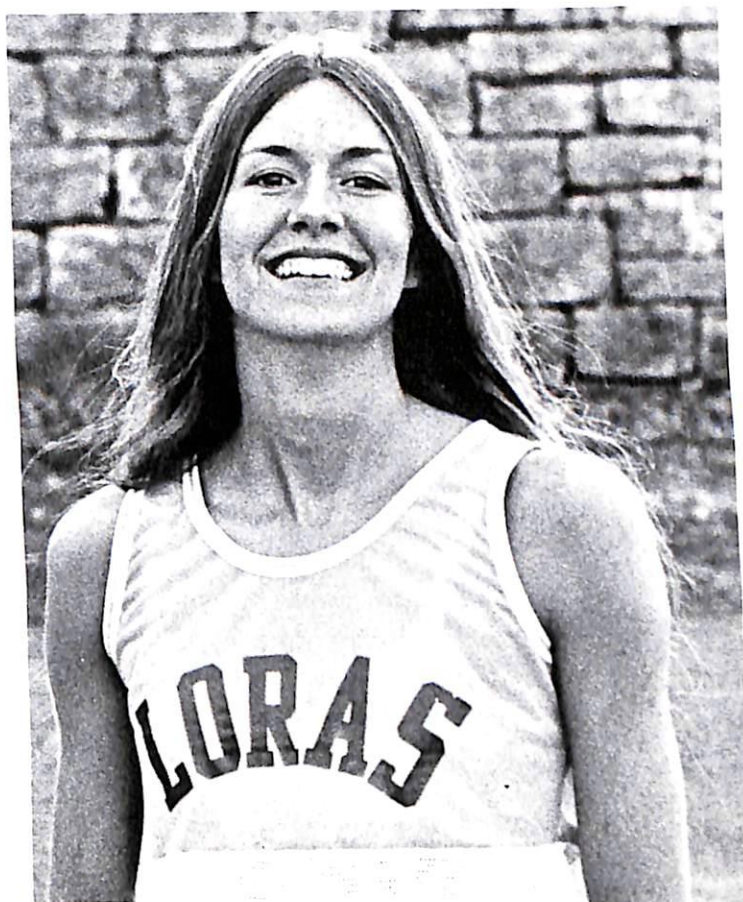

During his undergraduate years at Loras, Tim Durham was a consistent team leader. He qualified for the NAIA National Cross Country meet, the NAIA National Indoor Track Meet and the NAIA National Outdoor Track and Field Championships.

A Consistent point winner in dual and Invitational meets, Durham was always among the leaders in whatever event he competed in from the time cross country started in the fall until the National Outdoor meet in the spring.

A co-captain of both the Cross Country and Track teams, Tim Durham has turned in some of the finest cross country and distance performances in the history of Loras College.

It takes a versatile and dedicated athlete to be able to compete in events ranging from 1,500 to 10,000 meters and for this reason Mr. and Mrs. William Weber were proud to present the 1981 Mark Weber Award to Tim Durham.

All-American

Rose Noesges

Rose Noesges is a pioneer. She is also an All-American, but let's talk about the things that happened before she became an All-American.

During her days in Junior High School and High School she demonstrated her ability as an athlete in a number of events and then had to wait while programs were developed that allowed her and other young ladies of her age to more fully realize their potential both as athletes and as people.

On the Junior High School level she won honors as a sprinter and hurdler and then made three trips to the state track meet as a sprinter and hurdler for the Wahlert Golden Eagles.

When she came to Loras College as a freshman there was no real track program for women and Rose did her best to try and organize one. She did have an opportunity to compete in some open meets, but by the time she was a sophomore she decided that if there was not going to be a track program she would concentrate on her studies and compete in intramurals. She made the Dean's List as a chemistry major and completely dominated the Al Schramm Relays, the big intramural track meet in the spring of each year.

As a Junior she returned to track on the Varsity level and again demonstrated her outstanding ability as a sprinter and a hurdler. Coach Barb Anderson, in her first year as the Women's Track Coach at Loras, realized that Rose had the ability to be an All-American and encouraged her to go all out to try and attain this goal.

Her senior year proved to be the payoff for the Dubuque native, who after consistently winning points for Loras as a sprinter and hurdler, qualified for the AIAW National Meet at the University of California at Hayward.

To qualify for the Nationals, Rose turned in a time of 15.1 seconds in the 100 meter hurdles in the Iowa AIAW Track and Field Championships at Luther College in Decorah. That day the speedy Duhawk Senior won 12 team points for Coach Anderson's team as she also placed sixth in the 100 meter dash and sixth in the 220 yard dash.

Her performance at Luther was even more impressive when you consider that she was competing on a cinder track and the closest one to her at the finish line was timed in 16.2.

She narrowly missed qualifying for the 100 meters in the National Meet as she was timed in 12.74, only .02 of a second slower than the mark of 12.72 used by the AIAW as a qualifying standard in this event.

When she got to California and had a chance to work out and compete on an all-weather track, Rose qualified for the finals in the hurdles with a time of 14.5 in the semifinals.

The eventual winner in the hurdles was Margo Edwards of Redlands, California who was timed in 14.5 in the finals, while Rose was clocked in 14.8 and finished sixth in what was described as a blanket finish.

The top six finishers in the finals won All-American Honors and so Rose Noesges became the first woman in the history of Loras College to win All-American Honors in track and field.

Coach Barb Anderson feels that Rose has not yet reached her full potential as a hurdler so look for this young lady to win further honors in track and field in the years to come.

The fact that in addition to her other accomplishments Rose is a licensed pilot gives her untold opportunities to compete in meets all over the country and show everyone just how tough you can be when you are both a Pioneer and an All-American.

Natalie Brennan

Coach Barb Anderson and the Duhawk Women's Track team enjoyed a great deal of success in a variety of Invitational Track meets during the 1981 season.

Rose Noesges established herself as one of the top sprinters and hurdlers in the country as she went on to win All-American honors in the hurdles after dominating her specialty events during the regular season. Linda Schleuter was a consistent place winner in the distance events while Vicki Ross and Mary Junio gave the Duhawks a great deal of strength in the field events. Diane Sahn provided depth in the middle distance events and performed well in the 400 meter hurdles. Kathy Bonifazi specialized in the sprints and won a number of places in the 100, 220, and 440 yard dashes.

Natalie Brennan ran both the 440 and 880 and did so with grace. The members of the team made steady improvement during the season and Coach Anderson pointed out that she looks forward to the meets because every week a number of the women would set personal bests in their events. Then they would go out and beat their records during the next meet.

The Duhawks had a chance to compete against some of the finest athletes in the state of Iowa in Invitational meets at Wartburg, Central, and Luther. In addition to this they had an opportunity to compete in the state meet at Luther College early in May and at the Regional meet at Drake on May 8th and 9th.

Judo

The Loras College Judo Club Officers for the 1980-81 school year were: Logan LaMour, president; Ron Tigges, vice-president; Lisa Miller, secretary/treasurer; Rev. Daniel Rogers, moderator; and Terry Smith, "Sensei."

The Judo Club had a very successful season, including a very excited day at the fourteenth annual "Shiai", or Judo Tournament, in the fieldhouse on February 15. At the contest, Loras won seven trophies. Marty Willenborg won the number one place in the All Rank tournament and second place in the Novice Competition, both in the 209 lb. division. Mike Daugherty also won a second place, his in the 189 lb. division. Mike also won the Quickest Victory trophy for a match that lasted just six seconds.

Chris Lampe won a third place in the 143 lb. division, while Loras Holmberg won third at 189 lbs. and Theresa Ries won third in the women's division.

Although Logan LaMour went five rounds, he failed to make it to the finals. Also entered were Tom Parker and Pat Brehm at 172 lbs. and Drew Johnson, Kevin Quinn, and Hilary Nanpei in the 156 lb. division. The "Shiai" included competitors from six states and the competition was very keen.

Three members of the club attended Nationals in Little Rock, Ark. The three were instructor Terry Smith, club president Logan LaMour, and Chris Lampe. Theresa Ries and Marty Willenborg also qualified for nationals but were unable to attend.

Third Degree Black Belt to Terry Smith

Terry Smith
"Sensei" (Instructor)

Terry Smith, Founder of the Loras College Judo Club was promoted to the rank of third degree Black Belt (San Dan). Smith has been active in the sport for 25 years and advanced to the rank of first degree twelve years ago.

In the sport of Judo, contestants are ranked by various colored belts. Beginning with white contestants advance to yellow, green, then three degrees of brown, ending with black.

The third degree black belt is awarded only after many years of dedication and service to the sport and the achievement of the highest level of proficiency in competition. Smith was awarded the third degree Black Belt by the Midwestern Judo Association

Board of Examiners after being approved for the honor by a jury of his peers.

Terry was instrumental in founding the Loras Judo Club in 1963 and he constantly worked to improve it since that time. Loras now has the second largest Collegiate Judo Club in the state of Iowa and the Club is recognized by the Founding School of Judo (The Kodakon) in Tokyo, Japan. Smith now becomes one of six people in the state of Iowa to have progressed to the rank of Third Degree Black Belt. Since the club's conception in 1963 Smith has instructed over five-hundred people in the sport of Judo.

Al Schramm - A Living Legend

Seldom in the history of any institution have a man and a department become one and the same. It could probably only happen at a place like Loras College and the people who were privileged to be a part of this operation will always speak with admiration, respect, and pride of Al Schramm and the Intramural Department at Loras College.

A full Professor in the Physical Education Department, Al graduated from Loras in 1939 and except for two periods of time, when he was called to serve his country, the Iron Major was the director and guiding force behind an intramural program that has been studied and copied by colleges and universities all over America.

From 1939 to 1981 is a long time and there is no way to accurately log the thousands of hours this dedicated man devoted to a program he founded, developed and watched flourish. It is a matter of the record that more students at Loras participate in intramurals than any other organized activity, including eating meals in the cafeteria.

How do you summarize 42 years of service to an institution with a few paragraphs and a few pictures? The answer is - you don't. You just share a few ideas, remind people of some of the highlights, and then let them fill in the blanks. How does a Purgold Editor in 1981 accurately portray the contributions Al Schramm made to Loras in 1941 or 1951 or 1961, or for that matter, in 1971? The first order of business is to note that this man was bigger than any yearbook, more dominant than any one game or season or event and having recognized that, let you readers and all of the readers before and after you realize that Al Schramm was a very special kind of man.

A stern man who demanded a days work for a days pay from all he associated with, Al had the ability to inspire students, athletes and associates in a way that always brought out the best in them.

It could have been on the football field

Al Schramm unpacks trophies in his intramural shrine

when he coached the line for Wally Fromhart, it could have been in a first aid class or in a physical education course, or it could have been on the basketball court before, during or after an intramural game that Al Schramm reached out and touched your life, but wherever it was, once he touched you, it made you a better person even though you may not have realized it at the time.

It's too bad that those intramural basketball shirts were not made by some company with a brand name that you mentioned each time he reminded you to "leave your shirts" after a game. If they had been, and if some enterprising businessman had found out about it, he could have made his product a household word in a couple of seasons.

A devoted family man who spent as much time as possible with his wife and children, Al served as a model for many people in many ways.

If you were lucky enough to be at the Chicago Club Luncheon when Al was honored for all of his years of service at Loras you had a chance to see people of all ages come forth to express their thanks to this man who generally spoke quietly, but who always carried a big stick.

You would have seen Ray Meyer, the legendary basketball coach from De Paul who was one of the featured speakers at the luncheon, express his amazement at the size of the turnout for the luncheon. He had just returned from taking his basketball team to the final four of the NCAA Basketball Tournament and he stated that he did not feel that the Chicago Club at his school would be able to get this many people together for a luncheon to honor a man and to enjoy the fellowship which is the trademark of the Loras Club of Chicago.

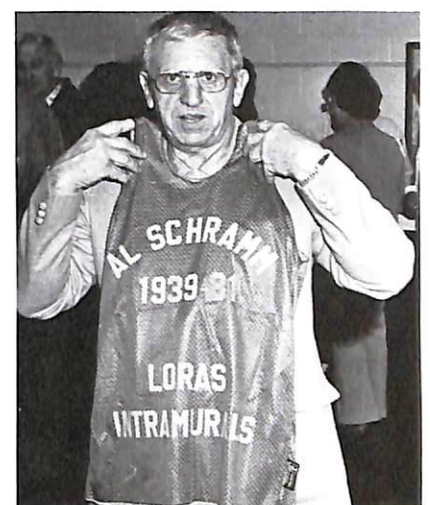

Everything that starts must end and so, with his retirement, the career of Al Schramm at Loras College has come to an end in one way, but more realistically, it has just moved into another dimension.

It would seem safe to assume that Al will still maintain his keen interest in Loras and that when he enjoys the use of his lifetime pass at the new physical education center that people will still have a chance to share ideas about the past, present and future of Iowa's oldest college with a man who just may know something about us and our school that we don't even know about ourselves.

It's nice to have a man like this as your friend!

Al Schramm is honored by the Chicago Loras Club

You gonna fly, ball!

Let me alone, Jack.

Get up, Up, UP.

I've heard of good clean fun. But this is ridiculous.

Oh my God, did that hurt!

What are we doing here?

Dance, swim, or play ball. But not all at the same time.

Praise the Lord, I beat him.

Did I block it? Did I block it? ... NO!

This is for the Michelob.

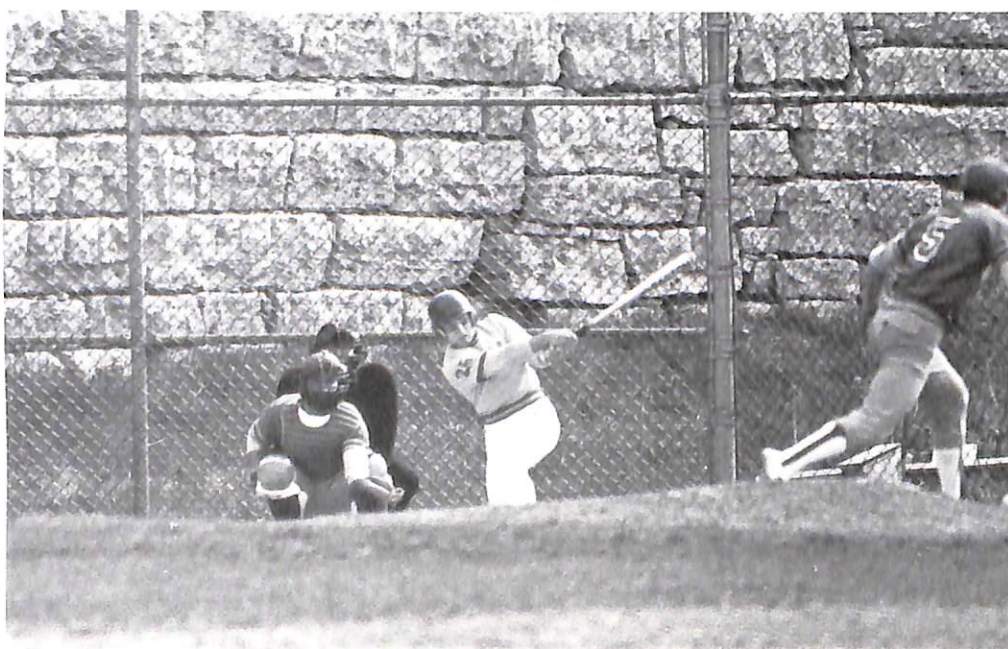

I'll get it!!!!

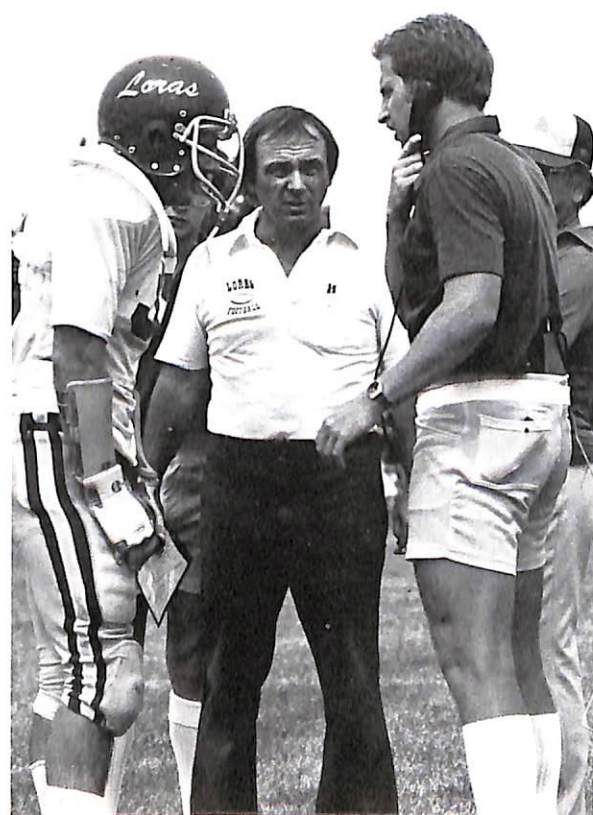

Oh Sh oot!

Knock, knock. Anyone home?

Fooooooooore!

Lets score, and then go eat!

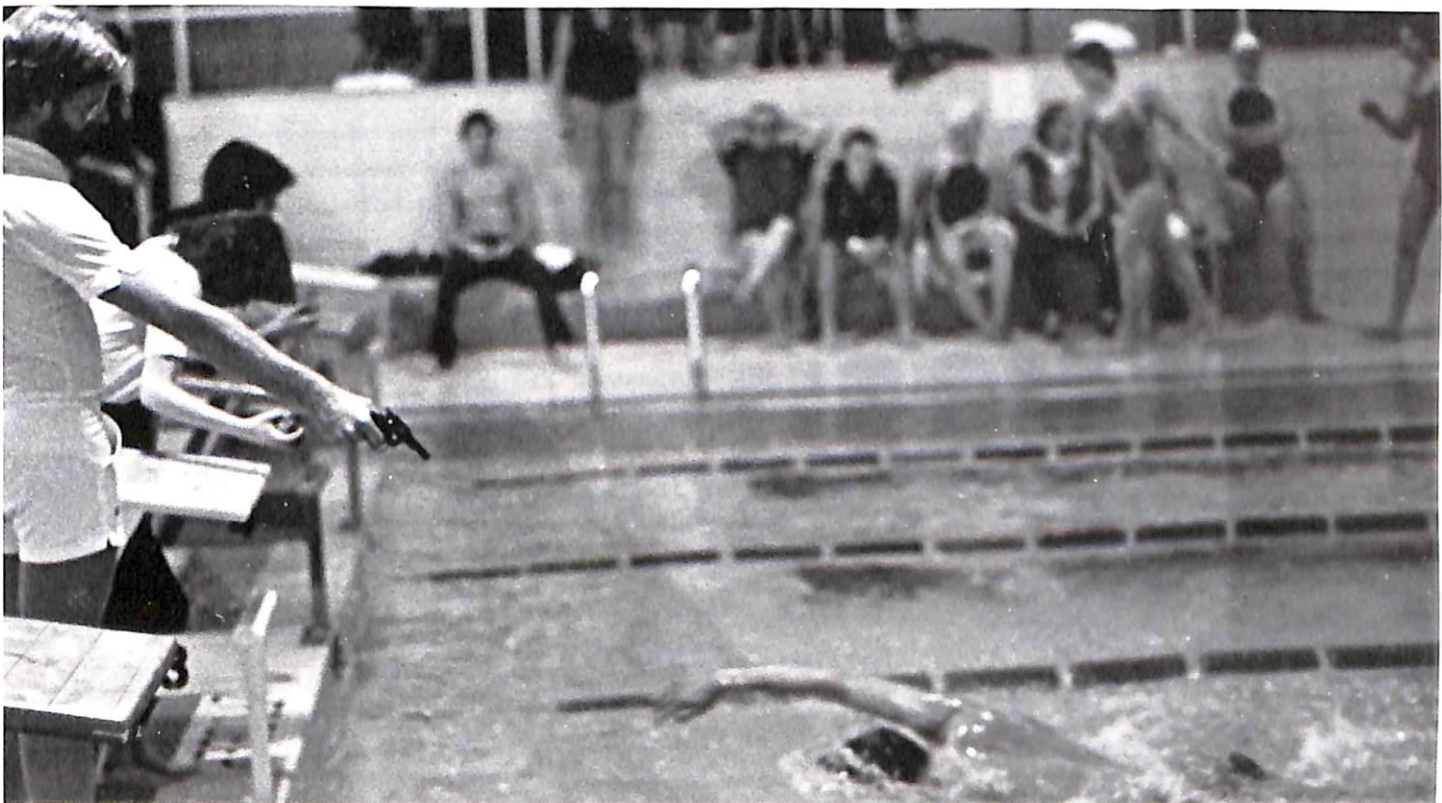

Would you get up there?!

ALL RIGHT! I give. How did you keep the socks clean?

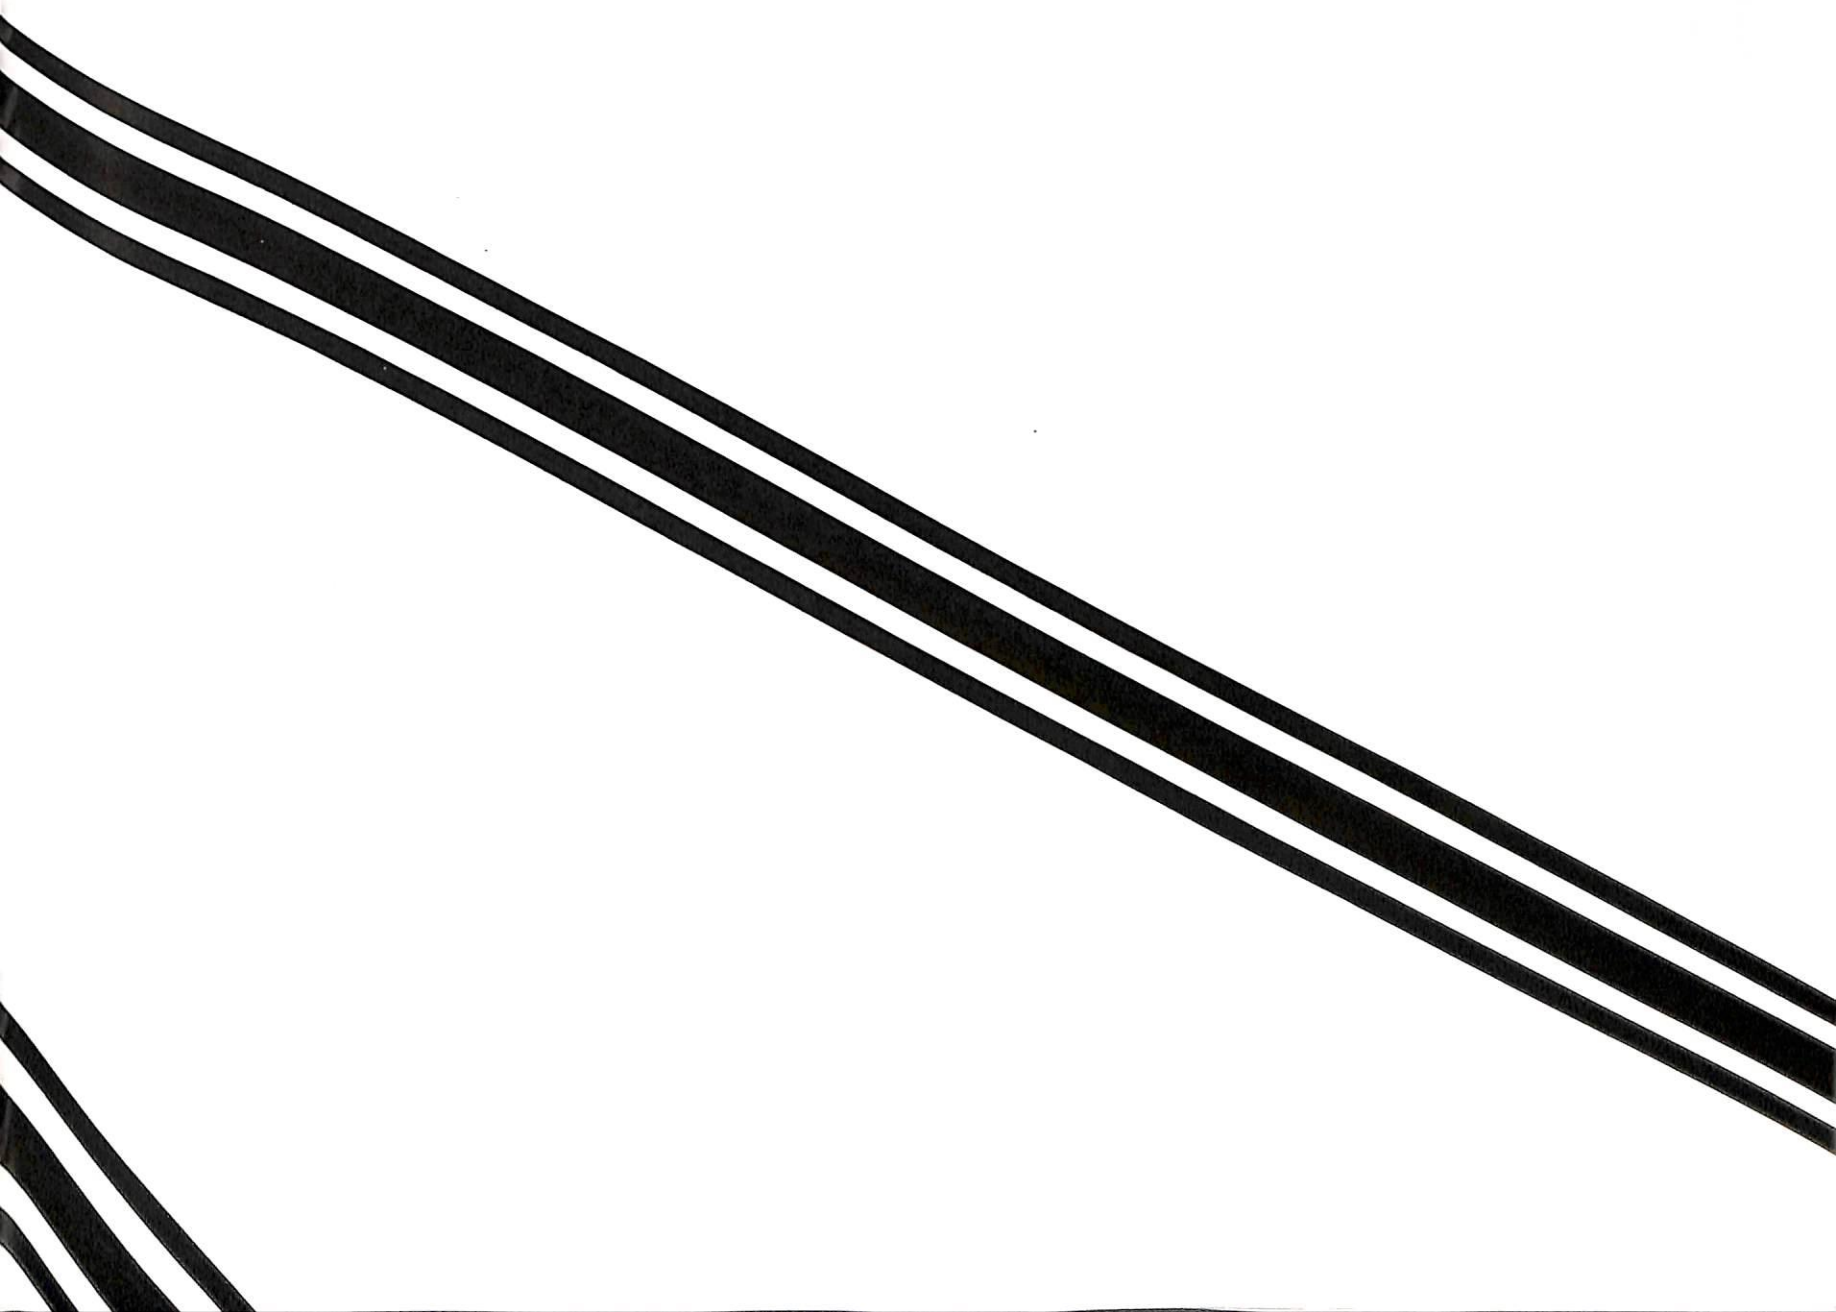

My foot's stuck to the plate!

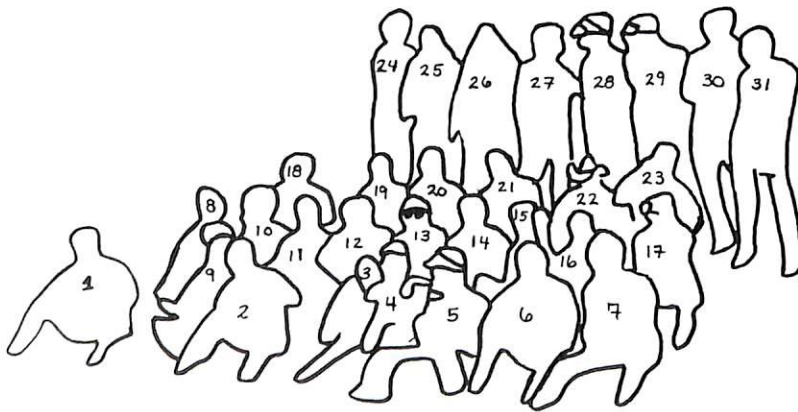

I SAID! The next lap will be faster!

Eh Fey Bah

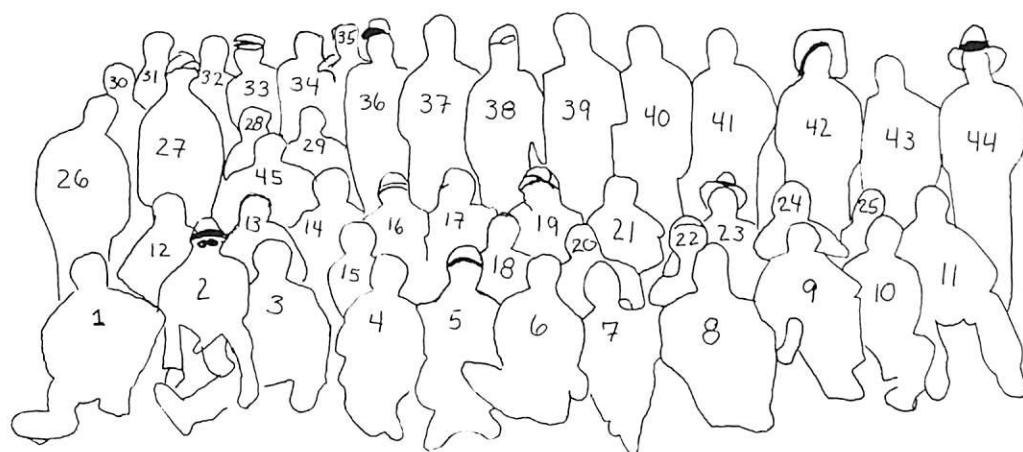

Translated, Eh Fey Bah means "A positive - negative" or nothing. The goals of Eh Fey Bah are nothing. Therefore if they do nothing all year long, they have achieved all that they have set out to do. Eh Fey Bah was organized as a jest to the frats, and is led by the Grand Poobah.

Purgold

Tammy Edens-Editor Vince Coyle-Moderator

Pat Pender

The 1980-81 Purgold has followed in the footsteps of so many of its ancestors of the last decade. That being, finally complete, but off schedule. The reasons are many, too many to go into. But a yearbook is a complex and difficult job, and with a large staff turnover each year the job is even harder. Yet the job does get done in spite of the obstructions.

The book is very late, we're sorry, but it is here now. When you look at it five or ten years from now, you'll think of the events and that is what you'll want to remember.

I'd like to thank Linda Schumacher for her help in the senior section and typing.

Thanks to Pat Pender for the help in the index, typing, and layouts.

Thanks to Matt Stuart for the advisory help.

And a very special thanks to Vince Coyle for all the time spent on all the stories as well as material selection.

But thanks to you, the students of Loras, who by your constant inquiries show that you want a book on the Loras campus called the PURGOLD!

Peer Counseling

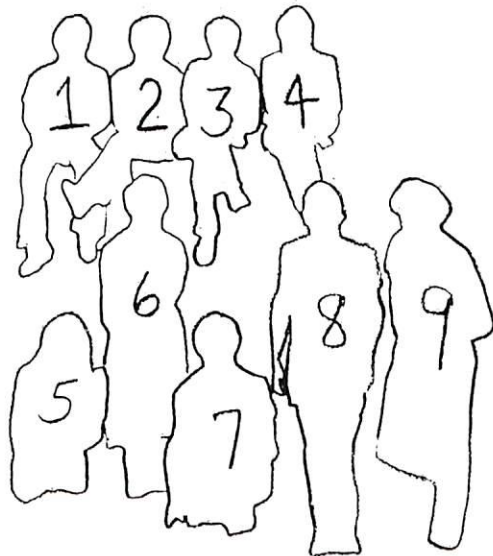

The Career Center, located on the second floor of the Collan College Center, is staffed by a group of students called Peer Counselors who have spent eighteen hours training to counsel students in career goals. The program was piloted this year by Sr. Bernadine Curoe and Ms. Julie Helmrich, under the direction of Dr. Jerry Jorgensen. Because the directors of the program felt that the need for career counseling is greatest among freshmen and sophomores, the counselors' training addresses this need in particular.

The most important activity of the Literary Club is the annual production of the "Outlet", a magazine of original artwork and creative writing selected from work submitted by the Loras student body. Funded by the Loras Student Senate, the "Outlet" staff is aided by the cooperation of the faculty and administration.

The group spends much of its meeting time discussing favorite authors or sharing original poems, short stories, plays, or essays.
